

Part 1: Rise of Fourth Reich in America?

“Without habeas corpus in the United States today, what we now have is a Fourth Reich, somebody in a position of power - the President, the Attorney General, the head of Homeland Security – can simply point a figure at you and designate you as an undesirable and hence, an enemy combatant, and they can grab you and imprison you and you don’t even get a day in court, much less a lawyer.”

America Without Habeas Corpus

UNDER THIS CURRENT ADMINISTRATION, WE STILL DON'T EVEN HAVE A RESTORATION OF HABEAS CORPUS, WHICH MEANS ANY AMERICAN CITIZEN CAN BE ARRESTED WITHOUT CHARGE STATED.

That's right. That's why we no longer have a Republic. Without habeas corpus in the United States today, what we now have is a Fourth Reich, somebody in a position of power - the President, the Attorney General, the head of Homeland Security – can simply point a finger at you and designate you as an undesirable and hence, an enemy combatant, and they can grab you and imprison you and you don't even get a day in court, much less a lawyer. This administration has systematically stripped the United States of its fundamental Constitutional rights. That's bad enough, but what really concerns me is that so many people refuse to look at that. They do not want to admit that. They do not want to see it and so they are allowing it to take place and continue.

In late 1942, the U. S. government actually prosecuted Prescott Bush as being nothing but a financial front man for Hitler and the Nazis under the Trading With The Enemy Act. He was fined and stripped of his holdings in the Union-Banking Corp.

August 1, 2008 Wise County, Texas - Recently I read a new book published in July 2008 that documents surprising links between Adolph Hitler's Nazi Third Reich (1933 to 1945 empire) in Germany - and America's banks, business owners, political power-brokers and wars - past and present.

The new book is entitled, The Rise of the Fourth Reich by New York Times best-selling author, Jim Marrs. Jim has been tracking down facts and trying to make sense of American political history since his college days as a journalism major at the University of North Texas in Denton. He graduated in 1966 and began a newspaper reporting and editing career at the Denton Record Chronicle, the Lubbock Avalanche Journal and the Fortworth-Star Telegram where he was an investigative reporter, cartoonist, and earned photography awards.

By 1988, Jim Marrs decided that he had to put his big file about President John F. Kennedy's assassination into a book he called Crossfire: The Plot That Killed Kennedy. Two months after its release in 1989, Jim received a call from Hollywood film director, Oliver Stone, who wanted to option Crossfire for the movie that became JFK.

Jim began asking book editors what they thought was the next big, secret government cover-up beyond the JFK assassination. Everyone said "UFOs." That's what lead Jim to write his 1997 book, Alien Agenda, which has become the top selling non-fiction UFO book in the world. Next was Rule By Secrecy, in 2000, which links the money-power elite of America with the money-power elite of Europe back to the money-power elite of Mesopotamia – which is modern day Iran and Iraq! According to Sumerian cuneiform tablets, Mesopotamia was controlled and manipulated by non-humans called Annunaki that had their own agendas on this planet.

After American buildings, planes and lives were destroyed on September 11, 2001, Jim did his own research and became convinced there were other truths beyond the official government version and wrote The Terror Conspiracy published in 2006, followed in 2007 by Psi Spies: The True Story of America's Psychic Warfare Program.

Now in his newest book, The Rise of the Fourth Reich, Jim Marrs lays out in great detail with names, places and dates his assertion that Hitler's National Socialism (NAZI) did not die at the end of World War II because protégés of Hitler had spread corporate front companies around the world. Further, the United States imported Hitler's best rocket scientists in Project Paperclip to test V-2 rockets at the White Sands Proving Ground in New Mexico.

Even current President George W. Bush's grandfather - Prescott Bush – was intimately connected in the 1930s to 1940s with the powers that represented the Rockefellers and Rothschild banking and business interests that were also involved in the creation and growth of Hitler and his Nazi Party. In late 1942, the U. S. government actually prosecuted Prescott Bush under the Trading With The Enemy Act because he was handling money for German steel magnate, Fritz Thyssen, who was helping to finance the rise of Adolph Hitler and the Nazi Third Reich.

Prescott Bush and his son George H. W. Bush, the 41st American president from 1989 to 1993. Prescott Bush's grandson, George W. Bush, is 43rd U. S. president from 2001 to 2009.

Creating wars for profit and stripping civilian liberties are Nazi goals. Jim Marrs warns that is already happening in the United States.

We see the erosion of individual liberties. If you say anything that's unpopular, you even risk jail and a fine. We also see increasingly that our police forces are no longer the citizen warriors or blue-clad police from a few years ago. They are now black-clad with the cold scuttle helmet, the same design that the Nazi troops used in WWII.

And we also see that Hitler, when he invaded Poland, he didn't want to upset the German people by calling up general conscription (drafting youth into war), so he used reserve troops to start WWII, just like we're using our reserve troops to fight imperial wars in Afghanistan and Iraq. Of course, then you come up through the similarities and parallels between the burning of the Reichstag and Enabling Act with the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center in the United States and the rapid passage of the Patriot Act and the creation of Homeland Security. The parallels between WWII Germany and modern America are all there.

The big difference in modern America with Nazi Germany is that in the Germany of the 1930s, the state gained control over the corporations. Today in modern America, we see that the corporations have gained control over the state. But the end result is the same.

America's CIA Trained Saudi Muslim Brotherhood in Afghanistan

ISN'T IT TRUE THAT BY 1979, THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY TOOK THE NAZI SAUDI MUSLIM BROTHERHOOD TO AFGHANISTAN TO FIGHT WITH THE SOVIETS AND THEY BECAME THE MUJAHIDEEN, WHICH IN THE MODERN WORLD TODAY ARE ONE AND THE SAME AS AL QAEDA? [Editor's Note: The Mujahideen are Muslims involved in a jihad, fighting a war or involved in a struggle.]

That's absolutely correct. When we took the Muslim Brotherhood into Afghanistan in the 1980s to fight against the Russian incursion there, the Muslim Brotherhood had already obtained a pretty bad name. They were originally thrown out of Egypt by Gamal Nasser because of their violence, but they were predominantly extremist Wahhabi Muslims. As a result, they were taken in by Saudi Arabia. This is still the predominant faction in Saudi Arabia today and, of course, this is where Osama Bin Laden entered the picture. [Editor's Note: Gamal Abdel Nasser (January 15, 1918 to September 28, 1970) was President of Egypt from 1956 until his death.]

Then after the Soviets left Afghanistan during the Clinton years when we had the war in Kosovo, we find that it was the Al Qaeda that was funding and training the Kosovo Liberation Army, which was the faction that the United States supported. So, we can see that the CIA was involved with, if not controlling, Al Qaeda all the way up until the George Bush II administration. I think that should cause every thinking person to take a very serious second look at the attacks of 9/11.
