THEY ALL CALL HIM KING

Introduction

This morning is just another day for myself, my wife and my five children. But for the rest of the world, they are "celebrating" what they call "Christmas." For this book, I am not going to go into what I believe is very clear concerning this so-called "holiday." Suffice it to say this much, according to the Scriptures, it is a complete impossibility for Christ to have had His birth as a man, on, or for that matter, even near this time of the year. When I am asked the question, "Why don't you celebrate "christmas?" My reply is usually that I am not Catholic. Most people have not ever made the connection — Christ-Mass. But, the history is there!

This book has come about because it is a necessary sequel to the book, The Religion of the New World Order. It is essential to the understanding of this book that The Religion of the New World Order be read first. In The Religion of the New World Order, I have shown that the Second Coming of Christ, the book of Revelation, and ALL Bible prophecy was fulfilled on or before 70 A.D. There is NO Bible prophecy left to be fulfilled. All that we are supposedly seeing today, and that which is so readily referred to as Bible prophecy, is a result of a grand scheme laid out and propagated on an unsuspecting world by the likes of money moguls Andrew Carnegie and Cecil Rhodes. Their plan called for a one-world socialist, communist state ruled by the British Empire. They plainly and clearly wrote of their plan and did not even make an effort to hide it. Cecil Rhodes started his Rhodes' Scholarship Program with Oxford University in the early 1900's. He wrote that his goal was the "ultimate recovery of the United States as an integral part of the British Empire." Andrew Carnegie wrote to the same end. These were men who were the wealthiest of the wealthy during their day — which, incidentally was really only a few short years ago.

In keeping with the tradition of the Illuminati, Bilderbergers, Freemasonry, and other secret societies, Rhodes and Carnegie utilized several passions of men in order to bring about the ruin that they are currently spreading throughout the world. The most devious of the plan was the release of the religious assault on the world. This religious deception is called, "The Kingdom of God on Earth." Cecil Rhodes enlisted the British Israel World Federation ideals and the "great and learned" C.I. Scofield as part of a grand religious plot to bring about his one-world federation under the British Empire.

Now some would call this the hatching of a conspiracy plot. Not so. A conspiracy is something that is hidden. The brief little sketch that I just laid out for you is not something that is hidden. These men have made their claims open and notoriously. But as Karl Marx said, "Religion is the opium of the people." The entire quote was: "Religion is the sigh of the oppressed creature, the heart of a heartless world, and the soul of soulless conditions. It is the opium of the people." The people in this country are so into their "religion" that they have been totally and completely removed from the truth and foundation that is Christianity. What should be so clearly seen as false and deceitful cannot be recognized even when exposed and laid bare before the light of the glorious gospel of Christ. They sing songs with profound truth, yet they don't recognize that what they are singing is totally contrary to what they truly believe. For instance, during this time of year a song is sung that was written by Isaac Watts many, many years ago. It goes like this:

Joy to the world! the Lord is come;
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing,
And heaven and nature sing.
Joy to the earth! the Saviour reigns;
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.
He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness,
And wonders of His love, And wonders of His love, And wonders of His love.

What is this song saying? Christ is King. CHRIST is King. CHRIST IS King. CHRIST IS KING. CHRIST IS KING! CHRIST IS KING!!! Are you getting it?

INTRODUCTION

CHRIST IS KING!!!!

Everyone is saying to me now, "Yes, we agree. Christ is King." But do we really? Do we really believe that Christ is King? Or do we believe that He is a King to come? Don't we really mean that He is returning someday to "Set up His Kingdom?" If that is what you believe, then like or not — you are a British Israelite. You have been duped by the religion of the New World Order. You are an ally of the One-Worlders. What you claim to be against, you are actually standing for!

Thus is the plan complete. The enemy is not in the "White House." The enemy is in "God's House." The "churches" of this country have been bought and paid for with Rhodes' money. His ideals have been spewing forth the one world message for decades and the people have flocked to it with open arms begging for more. They teach daily that Christ is going to return to this earth and set up a physical one world government and rule the world from Jerusalem for 1,000 years. This is why the people have accepted it. Who after all, would reject a one world government that was run by Christ?

If people could just see what has been done to them with this kind of heresy, surely their eyes would be opened and they would wake up in time to save what is surely to be taken away soon!

The title for this book, They All Call Him King, came to me in a matter of seconds. I was on the telephone with a renowned "preterist" preacher one day and we were discussing "fulfilled Bible prophecy." We literally spoke for hours. All was fine as long as the discussion was bashing futurism and promoting fulfilled Bible prophecy. But when the "preacher" asked me what else I had been working on - I responded by telling him some of what I was writing in this book. Within 5 minutes - the telephone call ended and I have never heard from the "preacher" again.

They ALL CALL Him King was the conclusion that I came to. I have found that related to living in the Kingdom of Jesus Christ right now - applying His teachings in our lives right now - applying the principles for daily living as found in the Scriptures - is NOT the practice in the "church" that believes in futurism - OR - in the "church" that believes in preterism. If your belief system towards Bible prophecy does not change your way of living - then it makes no difference what you believe about Bible prophecy. We CALL Him King - but do we live like it?

I have made the comment many times, "What you believe about Bible prophecy is not nearly as important as what you believe about the Kingdom of Christ." Do you believe that the Kingdom of Jesus Christ is established in the hearts of people now? Or do you believe that the Kingdom of Christ is a future, earthly 1,000 year reign on this earth? If you believe the latter, then IT DOES MAKE A DIFFERENCE about what you know about Bible prophecy because what you think you know has been a clever lie made popular by C.I. Scofield, Cecil Rhodes and Andrew Carnegie. This is the root cause of the evil in the world today. Read on for proof.

CHAPTER ONE

CHRIST IS KING, NOW!!!

If the world could somehow be convinced to delay the true Kingdom of Christ, then the one-worlders could possibly bring about their plan without much, if any, resistance. I want to propose to you that they have done just that. They have almost completely established their plan, and they have done it with virtually no resistance at all. And what resistance they have had, they have used it to their advantage.

For instance, say the U.S. or any other NWO government decides to punish someone for their "resistance." The individuals that claim to be persecuted respond to the government aggression by saying, "See, look, Bible prophecy is being fulfilled right before our very eyes! The Bible tells us that in the last days perilous times shall come and we'll be persecuted for His name's sake."

THAT IS EXACTLY THE RESPONSE THAT THE ENEMY WANTS!!! They have created an atmosphere that dictates a response that this is the fulfillment of Bible prophecy, therefore, not only is there nothing that you can do about it, there is nothing that you should do about it! Therefore resistance is futile. Complacency is one of their biggest tools. You are essentially telling people that resisting the New World Order is resisting Bible prophecy and resisting Bible prophecy is resisting God himself! This is a tool created by the enemy!

CHRIST IS KING, NOW!!!

When one comes to the realization that all of what is going on in the world today is religious deception, then one can truly begin to unravel all that is being played out on an international playing field. Coming to grips with the truth that Christ's Kingdom was fully and completely instituted at 70 A.D. is the truth that will turn things around. In fact, it is the only truth that will turn things around - it is the gospel of the Kingdom of Christ. It is the power that one receives from being placed into the true Kingdom of the Only True King, Christ Jesus, The I AM, Yashua, the Messiah! The gospel of the Kingdom is where the power is. It is the only thing that has the power to make any type of real change in the lives of men. CHRIST IS KING NOW!!! He is not a King to come. A king to come has no power and those who put their faith and trust in a king to come have missed it. The "king to come" is the Jewish messiah that is the center of all the religious deception that is taking place in the world today. The coming Jewish messiah is the source of all the world's woes. The coming Jewish messiah is nothing more than a one-world superstate in which all of those who resist will be discarded like mere garbage.

This is what nearly all of the "churches" in this country and throughout the world are preparing for us. What I can't figure out is why people want to rebel so hard against the truth of the Kingdom of Christ - now. But the fact is that they are rebelling against the same truth that they rebelled against 2,000 years ago.

CHRIST IS KING, NOW!!!

It will be necessary in this book to "go after" the likes of C.I. Scofield and all of those who would promote the wickedness of British Israelism. It is this devilish religion that has been used to dupe people into believing that the kingdom of Christ is some future event yet to be unfolded in another piece of the history of man. This unfolding of "divine will" contains the blueprint for the enslavement of not only the people in America, but the enslavement of all of mankind. The "churches" of this country have been used by the New World Order promoters and the deception has been so complete that men readily beg and cheer for the establishment of the New World Order. Of course, the "wise religious leaders" have led people into believing that before the New World Order is completely established, they and their followers will be miraculously "raptured away" so that they will not have to face any of what the rest of the world will be enduring. Then after 7 years of horror, they will return to "take over" the governments of the world and rule and reign in a one-world government for 1,000 years. Talk about despotism — their form of one-world government, according to Scofield, Dixon, Falwell, Lindsey, Robertson, et.al., will be one in which "no matter what the inner thought of man may be, HE MUST DO RIGHT OR DIE!" My friend, are you capable of this? Are you capable of sinless perfection in this present body? If you believe in the "king to come" teaching, then that is what will be expected. Let me show you how blasphemous this whole little scenario is. First of all, the "fundamentalists" call the Mormons heretics because the Mormons believe that they someday will attain the status of little gods and will each have certain parts of the universe under their control. But isn't this what the "kingdom to come" people teach also? How will they be able to "rule and reign" on this earth for 1,000 years? Won't they have to have reached some sort of god status? Their earthly bodies will not live for 1,000 years. What about those, that are left behind, the ones that will be under the servitude of those that have attained this god-like status? Well, according to Scofield and the others, this will be the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God on Earth. This is the day in which "whatever the inner thought of man may be, HE MUST DO RIGHT OR DIE."

CHRIST IS KING, NOW!!!

Can you not see the blasphemy of this teaching? What about the grace of our blessed Saviour? What has happened to it? What happened to His righteousness being applied to the lives and souls of the unjust? Well, it has been replaced. Well if it has been replaced, then the truth is — it was never really good enough. It would have been just like the Old Covenant — a mere shadow of something more perfect. This is utter and complete blasphemy. It is a complete denial of the Christ of the New Covenant. It tramples under foot the cross, its finished work, and blessed plan of salvation for mankind.

Thank God for the glorious truth of the blessed gospel of grace that our Saviour has provided for us who are in His kingdom NOW!

CHRIST IS KING, NOW!!!

My Kingdom is not of This world.

When Christ told Pilate that His kingdom was not of this world in John 18, then it was at that point that Pilate had no choice but to turn Christ over to be crucified. When Christ told Pilate that His kingdom was not an earthly, fleshly kingdom, then Christ, in essence, sealed His fate as far as Pilate was concerned. Let me explain. In John 11 beginning in verse 47, we find that the chief priests and the Pharisees had gathered a council together to discuss the activities of Christ. They had a real problem here because Christ was performing many wonderful miracles that could not be adequately attributed to the devil, as they most likely would have wanted to do.

The ordinary person of the day was believing that Christ was doing His miracles because of God. But the real issue was stated in verse 48. The dilemma that faced the chief priests and Pharisees is the exact same dilemma that an individual faces today if he believes that Christ is King now. They said, "If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation." And then the Scripture goes on to say, from that day forth, they took counsel together to put him to death.

Why? What was He doing that was such a threat to Rome? Why were the Jewish leaders so afraid of Him? If all that He was doing was performing miracles, then why did the Jewish leaders feel that the Romans would declare war on them and destroy them because of Christ's miracles? This was someone who supposedly did nothing but good things. He healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, caused the lame to walk, and even raised the dead. Why this man even walked on the water. He fed thousands of men, women, and children from one small basket of food! This man was certainly a "national treasure." So, what happened? What happened from the time the multitudes cried out, "Hosanna, to the King; to, Crucify Him, crucify him?" I am telling you that it all changed when He said that His kingdom was not of this world! The people would have thrown all of their confidence His way if He would have told them that His Kingship was going to be an earthly one. They saw His power. They saw His miracles. They wanted Him to use that awesome power to conquer the Romans. They wanted Him to use His power as a weapon of warfare. But when He told them that was not to be, they had no choice but to turn on Him. They had to once again "pledge their allegiance" to Caesar in hopes that he would not be too offended by this man that called Himself King. So, in order to appease the gods of Rome, they offered Him as a sacrifice in hopes of being spared some sort of retaliation from Rome.

CHRIST IS KING, NOW!!!

This concept is very clear within the pages of the Scriptures. If one would honestly read the Scriptures and get away from "religion" the answer would "jump off the pages." But like men infatuated with eyes that cannot see, the average "christian" in America runs off to some seminary or "bible school" to let some government supported "scholar" teach him what the Bible really says. After I finally got my eyes opened a little bit to the simple truths of the Scripture, I came to the conclusion that if someone had gone to "bible college" and had not rejected 99.9% of everything that he had been taught, it was because he did not know his Bible. I believe that statement with my whole heart. The truth of God's word and Christ's kingdom cannot be found in the organized church. It is not in the "corporate church" of America. It is not in the "bible schools" that are funded by government grants and loans. To gain the truth of God's word and the Kingdom of Christ, one must set aside all preconceived ideas concerning Scripture and embark upon an unending search for truth and the riches found in God's Holy Word.

I submit to you that the reason that Christ was killed by the Jews was because of His statement about His kingdom not being of this world. I also will prove that when the chief priests and Pharisees gathered the council together against Christ, it was not because of Christ's miracles, necessarily, but because His very presence was an open declaration of war against Rome. By the Jews not taking some sort of action against Christ, His very life would eventually be a declaration of war. To the Jews, who were only physically minded (as are most religious people today), this would end up in total devastation of their land.

I tell you that those of us who want to live in

CHRIST IS KING, NOW!!!

Christ's Kingdom today, are under the same sort of "physical threat" from government today. If we believe on Him, then the "government" (non-government) will come and take away, both our cars and our houses, and our wives, and our children, and ourselves. But praise be to our Great King who is also our Protector and Provider. When we came to Him, we gave up of our earthly possessions, and we took up our crosses and followed Him. He will sustain us in our hours of need. He alone is our Defense and Shield.

There is an alternative christ that we could follow, though. The coming "christ." We could follow him. After all, he doesn't require a change of mind. He doesn't ask for any type of commitment. After all, he's a "coming king." And as Scofield says, the ethical keyword of the AGE TO COME is "righteousness." "Righteousness" is not for today. He's not king now. He's a king to come.

CHAPTER TWO

CHRIST SAID HE WAS KING

In John 1 we find the story of Christ gathering some of His disciples together for the first time. A very interesting thing is seen when you examine the call to Nathanael. The Scripture states in verse 45 that Philip found Nathanael and told him that they had found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. In verse 49 when Nathanael laid eyes on Christ, he said, "Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel." Now if one would think that such a statement was not very important, just go back and examine what Herod did when news of Christ's birth came to him. The wise men of that day knew that the baby that was born was the fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecies concerning the birth of the King. So Herod tried to kill Jesus then, thinking that He was a threat to Herod's temporal throne. Herod went so far as to have an entire age of baby boys wiped out in order to kill One that he considered a threat to his throne. Herod didn't get the job done. But what I would like to deal with concerning this "King" issue of Christ, is what it meant in light of Caesar, and then what it means today.

In Luke 23 I would like to begin dealing with the issue that Christ said He was King. Corresponding to this, I would like to show you how one "religious leader" specifically tries to destroy this most valuable foundation of the Kingdom of Christ. In Luke 23 verse one the Scripture says: "And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. And they began to accuse him saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King. And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it."

Now here is the beginning of Pilate's nightmare. This is also where Frank Charles Thompson, D.D., P.h.D. begins his destruction of this valuable piece of Christian rock that all must be built on in order to stand! Thompson says in his notes, (which is from the Thompson Chain Reference Bible, which is produced in Indianapolis, Indiana by B.B. Kirkbride Bible Company, an Indiana Corporation) that these are false accusations. He says that these statements about Christ being King and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar are slanderous accusations. Where does he get the authority to say that these are false accusations? The context of this passage does not lead you to believe that they were false. Christ did not inform Pilate that they were false. Where does he get his information?

Look closer at the passage. The word accuse as it is found in Luke 23 verse 2 is very interesting when you compare it to other uses in the New Testament. For instance, in Luke 3 John the Baptist has begun preaching a message of repentance to soldiers and tax collectors. When the soldiers asked him what was expected of them, John responded by telling them not to accuse any falsely. The Greek word for accuse is different in these two instances. The word accuse in Luke 23 does not have the definition of, nor does it in anyway lead you to believe that the accusation, or the accuser is making a false accusation. But the Greek word for accuse in Luke 3 plainly tells you that the word means false accusation. My point is this: If the Luke 23 passage was a false accusation then it would have used the same Greek word that was used in Luke 3 when the context of the Scripture was clear that they were talking about false accusations. But it doesn't!

When I first saw this thing that Thompson had done, I began looking in other places to see if he had made a mistake or if he had intentionally done this. I was looking for a pattern. A favorite text of mine is found in Acts 17. This was when Paul and Silas had gone to Thessalonica to preach about Christ. Verse 5 tells us that some of the Jews there got angry and they gathered a company and set the city on an uproar. The Scripture says in verse 6: "And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; Whom Jason hath received: and these ALL DO CONTRARY TO THE DECREES OF CAESAR, saying there is another KING, ONE JESUS." This is an absolutely fantastic passage of Scripture showing the Lordship of Christ and the practice of it in the lives of the apostles. Even in the organized church, I have heard this passage quoted. (Haven't seen it lived, but I've heard it talked about.) But what does "Dr." Thompson, D.D., P.h.D., do with this passage? He tells us that these were false accusations. Not only that, but he tells you to go back to Luke 23 to see the other false accusations!

If you are presented with error and you do nothing to refute it, is that not an admission of yours that you agree with the error? It seems to me that if people were making false claims about Christ in His presence, that He would not allow them to remain in error. Would Christ do this? In John 19 there is another excellent passage of Scripture that we should look at as far as Christ saying that He was King. Beginning in verse 12 the Scripture says that Pilate wanted to let Christ go. But the Jews cried out saying, "If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar." Where did all of this come from? If these were false accusations, then why did they cause so much harm? If they were lies, then why were they so effective. Anyone knows that a good lie must have some truth to it. (I might also add that Thompson adds this passage to his references to false accusations in his notes on Acts 17.) In verse 14, Pilate said to the Jews, "Behold your King! But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar." If you will continue on with this passage of Scripture you will read that Pilate wanted to have a title placed over Christ's head as He was hanging on the tree. Pilate wrote the following: JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. The interesting thing about this though, is that the chief priests (the Judeo-Christian leaders of their day) came to Pilate and told him to change his sign. They wanted him to say (verse 21) "He said, I am King of the Jews." You make your own mind up. Did He say it or not? Were these false accusations or not? Well if you believe that they were false accusations then you have a lot of explaining to do if you call yourself a Christian or a "christian-patriot." If you try to stand against this wicked system, then you must apologize and make restitution. But if these are not false accusations, then you need to realize that He truly is King NOW and you have ALL OF THE AUTHORITY AVAILABLE FROM THE KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS TO STAND AGAINST WICKEDNESS AND PROCLAIM THAT THERE IS ANOTHER KING, ONE JESUS!!!!

Does Thompson have a pattern of denying the "Kingship of Christ?" His "Reference Bibles" are distributed by an Indiana Corporation. How could his "Bible Notes," being distributed with the approval and protection of the State of Indiana possibly declare that there may be another authority that man must yield to, other than the state of Indiana? Wake up. The "religious" corporations of today are no different than the ones of Christ's day that put Him to death and then persecuted the true believers who were living according to His Kingship.

They still say it today! "We have no king but

CHRIST SAID HE WAS KING

Caesar!" The "heathen" religious say it openly. And the "righteous" religious say it by twisting the Scriptures out of context. In a recent Sunday paper, it was reported that the 100 "scholars" that attended the "Jesus Seminar" had determined that there were several things that Christ did not say, as well as several things that He did say. Among the list of things that He supposedly did not say: "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life, no man cometh to the Father but by me." Among the list of things that He did say: "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesars..." The holy heathen religious say it a little differently. They say, Oh yes, He is King — but not yet! When He comes again, then He will be King. Wake up, friend. He's not coming again! He came in 70 A.D. in fulfillment of His promise to that generation and the Scripture NOWHERE says that He is coming a third time. His kingdom is not an earthly kingdom. He is not returning to this earth to set up a throne in Jerusalem, the Ozarks, or anywhere else. The only throne that He is interested in sitting on is inside a man's heart. His kingdom is a spiritual kingdom in which flesh and blood cannot inherit. He is King in the lives of any and everyone who will allow Him to be.

Look at Luke 19 from 29 on. This was when Christ was getting ready to ride into Jerusalem on the colt. He told His disciples to go tell the man who owned the colt that, "The Lord hath need of him." Who needed him? The Lord - the one who is supreme in authority. The KING! Verse 37 says that "when He was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen: Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory to the highest." Now when the Pharisees heard this, they told Christ to rebuke His disciples and tell them to stop saying that. But Christ responded to them saying, "I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out." This was the declaration of war that the Pharisees were so scared about. What do you think would happen to you if you went around telling everyone that you had a different King than the rest of the world? What would happen to you if you told people that you were not subject to the same government that they were? Well, if all you did was talk about it, you'd probably be left alone. But what if you started living it? What if you lived your life as if you truly had another King?

I'm not talking about not smoking, drinking, cussing, and messing with women. I'm not talking about not going to movies, or dances. I'm talking about living under the Kingship and authority of no one but Christ! I'm talking about turning your back on this wicked ungodly, Christ hating, Bible hating system that everyone participates in. I'm talking about a real separation from the world's system and a walk under the Kingship of Christ. I'm talking about not entering into any covenants and agreements with a foreign "government or any earthly government for that matter." Someone once told me that he thought that I was really missing the boat with this license, social security, 1040 business. He said by my standing against those things that I was violating II Timothy 2:4, the Scripture that talks about "no man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life." Remember what Marx said about religion being the "opiate of the people." This guy had every license available, participated with social security, was in the good hands of All-State, filed 1040's, was born in a hospital, had vaccinations, etc., etc., and yet HE TOLD ME THAT I WAS ENTANGLED WITH THE AFFAIRS OF THIS LIFE!!!!

More on that later! But before that can take place, we must find the authority for living the Kingdom life. If as the "fundamentalists" want you to believe, that He is a King to come — then we really shouldn't get too radical with this Kingdom living stuff. We should just sit back and wait on Him to set up His kingdom. We should just argue issues of entanglement, rather than issues of jurisdiction. In other words, we recognize the "authority" of man's "governments," we just want you to be a little kinder and easier on us. Rather than, Christ is King NOW! Which should be the response from the true believer in Christ! We do not recognize your "authority." You have no power but that which you have usurped, and we will not bow down to you — nor your "laws", or your New World Order. What would happen if all of the supposed "Christians" and "Christian-patriots" in America who are supposedly against this New World Order, would just say NO?

CHRIST SAID HE WAS KING

A while back, we had a large group of "patriots" in our home. Up until that time, I thought that a "patriot" was one who had said no to the wickedness of "government" encroachment and wicked laws and was risking life and liberty for their beliefs. Funny thing is, virtually every single issue that they claimed to be against, they were practicing in their lives. I talked with a man recently who told me that he was living on a farm and that he would soon be self-sufficient. Wow, I told him, that's great! That is exactly what I want to do. He then proceeded to tell me that he was going to get an allodial land patent. Wow, again, I told him. I didn't even know that you could actually get one. "Oh yes," he said. "But for now I must wait." "Why?" I asked him. He said because "slaves cannot have allodial land patents." He said that his sole source of income was social security and until he gave that up, he couldn't get his allodial land patent. What a crock! Pile of Patriot crap! The Kingdom is NOW people and if you claim to be one of His, then it is past time that we start living it. Get the power of the Kingdom in your life. Get out of this wicked ungodly system. Get out of All-State's hands and into His hands! Let go of your piece of the rock and start standing on THE ROCK! Stop asking for permission to GO, when He already commanded you to and then told you that He had ALL POWER AND AUTHORITY IN HEAVEN AND EARTH! Come out from among them AND BE YE SEPARATE.

CHAPTER THREE

The Lie of the Future Kingdom Message

The "patriot" movement is loaded with the futuristic kingdom message. I recently read an article that Randy Weaver said that he moved his family to Idaho to escape the coming Great Tribulation of the book of Revelation. The article claimed that he said he thought that the battle of Armageddon would be fought in Idaho. Whether he said that or not is immaterial. What is worthwhile is the fact that he said that the book of Revelation is unfulfilled.

I have documents in my possession, that state that the CIA must protect all Christian Identity movements at all costs. I cannot prove the validity of such documents. But I can tell you why that statement would and very possibly could have been valid. The Christian Identity Movement, the Fundamental Christian movement, the American Coalition of Unregistered Churches, and so on, are some of the greatest allies that the New World Order has. They all teach in some form or another British Israelism, which is the official religion of the New World Order. They all teach some sort of FUTURE earthly reign of Christ. They all teach that the perilous times that we are under today are fulfillments of Bible prophecy. This is exactly what Rhodes and Carnegie planned early on in the 20th Century. They would use the devious plan of religious deception called the Kingdom of God on Earth and turn it into their ultimate plan for a one-world superstate in which the British Empire would rule. The evidence is there.

Let me clarify something about the official religion of the New World Order. When I say that British Israelism is the official religion of the New World Order — and I then make the comment that a "future reign of Christ on this earth" teaching is their greatest ally — I am in no way shape or form saying that the New World Order religion embraces the Christ of the New Testament. The New World Order leaders are no more interested in "truth and righteousness" than the man in the moon, unless you classify humanism, or the worship of themselves as "truth or righteousness." I am simply saying that in order to bring about their New World Order of a one-world superstate, they have used the "future reign of Christ on earth" as a facet in their devious multi-pointed plan.

At this point I would like to expose a few of the things that I have discovered from "organized religion" that need to be looked at in light of what I am trying to point out in this book. I have in my possession a "bible" tract. It is put out by a government corporation called Chick Publications. I have come in contact with a lot of people who have told me that they have seen this particular "tract." It is called The Beast. As I read through this one-world propaganda, I noticed all of the normal Scriptures that these people use to establish their one-world agenda. One of the first obvious things that comes to mind is when he talks about The Beast making a false treaty with "God's Chosen People." He says that "The Beast hates Israel (God's chosen people) -- and he makes a false treaty with them." Surely he's talking about the true Israel of God?!? He must be talking about the true believers being the "Israel" that the Beast hates. Not hardly, he's talking about the group of people in Palestine that call themselves Israelis and who virtually the entire "religious" world says are God's chosen people.

The Synagogue of Satan

Years ago we went to the annual convention of a group of Baptist preachers. I went to the meeting carrying a sign and standing on the street corner across from the synagogue, I mean, "church." My sign read:

BAPTIST LEADERSHIP
HATERS OF CHRIST
DESTROYERS OF AMERICA ARE MEETING INSIDE THE BAPTIST SYNAGOGUE

There is an important reason why my sign said, Haters of Christ, are meeting inside the Baptist Synagogue. I wanted to call to the attention of the people that were going inside the place that their leaders promote the teaching that the people who are living in the Middle East, and who call themselves Jews, are "God's Chosen People." Many of the people who attended that meeting were appalled when they found out that this blasphemy was being taught there. Many of the people there were quick to rush to their leaders' defense in denying that they believed such things. I told them simply to go and ask them and find out for themselves. They did — and they do. I spoke to a man recently who told me that he couldn't understand where religious "leaders" come up with such things. "I thought the true believer was God's chosen people," he said.

Funny thing about this is, that the majority of the "unlearned" "lay people," as the religious leaders refer to them, are in the same spot that I was years ago. One day a Baptist preacher looked at me with amazement and said, "You don't believe that the Old Testament promises to Israel are fulfilled in the church, do you." "Of course, I do," I said, "Don't you?" I never dreamed that there was anything but that! My problem was that I just couldn't grasp the "great truths" that the Rhodes' idealist C.I. Scofield had tried to convince me of. GALATIANS 3:29 IS ABUNDANTLY CLEAR: AND IF YE BE CHRISTS, THEN ARE YE ABRAHAM'S SEED AND HEIRS ACCORDING TO THE PROMISE. I Peter 2:6-10 — Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief cornerstone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner. And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. BUT YE ARE A CHOSEN GENERATION, A ROYAL PRIESTHOOD, AN HOLY NATION, A PECULIAR PEOPLE: THAT YE SHOULD SHOW FORTH THE PRAISES OF HIM WHO HATH CALLED YOU OUT OF DARKNESS INTO HIS MARVELOUS LIGHT: WHICH IN TIME PAST WERE NOT A PEOPLE, BUT ARE NOW THE PEOPLE OF GOD: ... Who are the people of God? Unto you therefore which believe... The Synagogue of Satan comes into the picture when you look for the phrase which is found in Revelation 2:9: "I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan." Now who did Paul say in Galatians 3:29 were Abraham's seed? And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise. Who did Peter say was the Chosen Generation, the people of God? Unto you therefore which believe... So for someone to say that a group of people are God's chosen people because of race, and not because they have trusted in the Christ; it is blasphemy! To promote that "theology" is the synagogue of Satan. Just stand back for a minute and look at who promotes it. The organized church. The 501(c)(3) not-for-profit corporations owned and controlled by the state, and the churches who have placed themselves under the authority of man.

It is of great importance that the people who call themselves God's people understand that Scofield turned Spiritual Israel - that which is identified by the FAITH of Abraham - and subsequently then through Jesus - into Racial Israel in support of Cecil Rhodes' racial supremacist concept of world domination by a people based on the color of their skin.

Call me naive, I guess, but the simplicity of the Scriptures affirm to me that God's people are ONLY those who have accepted Jesus Christ into their lives. Salvation is by grace NOT BY RACE.

Ever heard of Zionism?

It should be noted that this book will, throughout its pages show the teachings of British Israelism. British Israelism being the official religion of the New World Order has as its focal point for destruction, the mythical fulfillment of the "fig tree" of Matthew 24 as being the reestablishment of the Jewish nation of Israel located in the Middle East. Everything in this world seems to revolve around that area in the Middle East. I have said before that Saddam Hussein, Khadafy, Arafat and others of that ilk are real threats to the establishment of a New One-World Order. Hussein and those guys see what baloney this is about these people that call themselves Jews being God's chosen people. Why was it when George Bush Sr. threatened to bomb Iraq that Hussein responded by saying that he would bomb Israel? Why didn't he say that he would bomb the U.S.? Why was bombing Israel such a valid threat for Hussein to hurl at Bush? It is because the official religion of the New World Order is British Israelism. And British Israelism has as its focal point for all of its deception — the nation of Israel.

THE LIE OF THE FUTURE KINGDOM MESSAGE

As far as Zionism is concerned, why did I even bring that up. The answer to that is amazingly simple. You can pick up any encyclopedia for yourself and read the British connection with Zionism. Look under Israel and look under Zionism. Both of these headings will give you clear and concise connections between the establishment of Israel in Palestine in 1948 and the British. Who owned Palestine on May 13, 1948? Great Britain. Did God give this piece of land to these people who despise His Son? Was this some great fulfillment of Bible prophecy? As Scofield says in his notes on Matthew 24 — "the promise is, therefore, that the generation—nation, or family of Israel—will be preserved unto "these things"; a promise wonderfully fulfilled to this day." Fulfilled by God — or fulfilled by the coffers of Cecil Rhodes and Andrew Carnegie? Here we go, changing the true Israel of God into a physical, fleshly entity. Is there some sort of pattern that could possibly be established here? Scofield's notes were copyrighted by Rhode's college, Oxford, in 1917. Then in 1948, Rhode's country, Great Britain, gives some land to the Zionists and helps them establish the nation of "Israel." Wow! Bible prophecy fulfilled! It must be true. It's true all right. The Rhodes - Carnegie - Scofield - British connection has made its first big triumph in bringing about its ultimate goal: The establishment of a One World Superstate in which the British Empire rules. The people of God in the Scriptures were called "Israelites." The people in the Middle East CALL THEMSELVES "Israelis." There is a huge difference and even they themselves know it.

THE LIE OF THE FUTURE KINGDOM MESSAGE

Back to Chick

If you remember, all of this began with my critique of the Chick Publication, The Beast. I started this because of Chick's claim of Israel being God's chosen people and that the Beast hates Israel. Chick then goes into the "mark of the beast, 666... and all of that." He tells people that through the use of computers, the Beast will be able to control every person on the globe. "Everyone shall receive my mark on their foreheads or on their right hand. Without this mark -- you will be unable to buy or sell!" He then gives Bible references from Revelation 13:16-17 to support his claim. On the next page, he begins a cartoon that shows some of the things planned for this earth. What I want you to realize is that I believe that the One-Worlders are planning terrible tribulations for the people of this earth. It will be so chaotic and so terrible that the people will literally beg for someone to make things good. Out of all this will emerge the One-World Superstate of the British Empire, as goes their plan. This is NOT BIBLE PROPHECY BEING FULFILLED. This is a twisted, demented plan that has been concocted by wicked, evil men with the help of "religious leaders" who have "wrested the Scriptures to their own destruction." The problem that faces you and me today, is that the principle of the followers being destroyed by their leaders is still in effect. We must say NO to this One World movement. We must put action to our speech. We must pull out and stop participating! The "patriots" of this country claim to be against one-world government. But their pockets are full of credit cards! MasterCard openly declares SO WORLDLY SO WELCOME! Their billfolds have documents identifying with the world's "system." They help to establish the New World Order because they refuse to realize that they have a choice of where their citizenship will be. And while they talk about being against one-worldism, they promote it by their actions! "After all," they say, "we're not in the Great Tribulation yet."

This reminds me of another event that took place in my life while I was playing the "religious" game. Years ago when I was on the "staff" of a Baptist Synagogue, a missionary from Greece, who happened to be a nationalist, had come to the States to give a "progress report." While we were in a "staff meeting" he pulled out what appeared to be some sort of Passport. Upon closer examination, it was a card that everyone in the European Common Market nations had to have in order to travel, buy, or sell. This card had 666 right on it! At this time, I was a believer in all of this Rapture, Tribulation stuff so I was truly amazed! While the rest of the men there in the meeting were rejoicing — I sat there in shock. The men were rejoicing because this was some great sign that the fulfillment of Bible prophecy was near. But to me, I was shocked! "Why do you have that, I exclaimed? What are you doing with that thing? The Scripture tells us in I John 4 that we should resist even the spirit of Anti-christ." After I was put back into place by the "elder brethren" I was told, "It's not in his forehead or his hand."

THE LIE OF THE FUTURE KINGDOM MESSAGE

I get it! He's not King now! He's a coming King. We don't need to be concerned with resisting evil now. This same "preacher" wouldn't want you to get out of social security, even though he has on many occasions stated that the social security number is the forerunner of the supposed Mark of the Beast. Amazing.

This same "preacher" told me one day that he was exceedingly fearful of a "cashless society." I expected him to say that because of all of the hardship that it might cause individuals who truly want to live outside of this wicked system. But the reason that he told me that he was concerned about a cashless society, was: "How are we going to take an offering?"

Why not set up with MasterCard and VISA like everyone else? After all, it's not in your forehead or your hand.

The last little piece that I want to examine with Chick's Beast Publication is going to be used to appeal to common sense. Please hear me clearly on this point: My citizenship is not with the "government" of the United States. I have no earthly citizenship. I am not subject to the "laws" of any man that do not have the Creator's best interest at heart (the definition of ordinance, I Peter 2:13). I am not a Constitutionalist, because it violates Scripture. I am under the authority and laws of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. So with that said, I want to appeal to your common sense, and your love of

"country" to try and get you to see the error of this coming Kingdom message that is being delivered to you by so many "Christian patriot preachers." Chick has a statement in his Beast Publication that says: "Satan knows Jesus Christ is about to return to take over the governments of the world. So he masses his armies to try to block the Lord's return at Jerusalem." What is he saying? You patriots out there who claim to be concerned about the "sovereignty of the U.S. and the Constitution," what do you think would happen to the "sovereignty of the U.S. and the Constitution" if this were actually going to happen? There would be no sovereignty of any nation! There would be a one-world government! But, you say, it would be fine because it would belong to Christ. But that simply is not the case. His Kingdom is not of this world. The attack on the sovereignty of the U.S. is part of the plan of the One Worlders — not fulfillment of Bible prophecy. They are causing world events to look like Bible prophecy fulfillment in order to create a "so-what" attitude. "So what if the United States falls. It's going to anyway! So what if we lose any freedom that is left. We're going to anyway. So what — WE WON'T EVEN BE HERE!"

Wake up! Wake up! Wake up! Those of you who have claimed to be against the one-world government are preparing the world for it exactly according to plan! Your help has been beyond their wildest dreams. They have met with very little resistance, and what resistance they have met with, has been turned around and used on their behalf. The Identity people have been used greatly because they are preparing their people for a final showdown on American soil. This is perfect because now the one-worlders can continue destroying America in fulfillment of Bible prophecy. They can continue to pass legislation that is so obviously anti-American and anti-Christ because it is the fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

The fundamentalists have been used perfectly because they have told everyone for years that Bible prophecy is being fulfilled because God is punishing America for her wickedness. Well what exactly is her wickedness? Too much booze? Too many movies? Too much lack of tithing to pay the preachers? Too much cigarette smokin'? Boy those things would surely bring the wrath of God down! I'm sure glad that Christ knew better than that and he turned that water into grape juice. Had it been the real thing, He would surely have caused His country to be destroyed.

America is being destroyed because the preaching of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God has been removed by "preachers" doing the bidding of the NWO and the people will not wake up and see what their "leaders" have done.

What we are seeing today is NOT THE WRATH OF GOD IN FULFILLMENT OF BIBLE PROPHECY. It is the self-destruction of a group of people who have blasphemed the Creator and King. WE WILL NOT HAVE THIS MAN TO REIGN OVER US has been the attitude of everyone — LED BY THE "PREACHERS." Christ is a King to COME they say! "Righteousness" is the ethical keyword of the AGE TO COME. "Righteousness is not for now!" Clean up the outward appearance. Stop smoking, drinking, cussing, carousing with the women, and going to movies. START TITHING! That has been the extent of the "gospel" message in this country, thanks to the likes of Scofield, Falwell, Swaggart, Roberts, Robertson, Dixon and the rest.

They have swallowed Scofield's and Rhodes' interpretation of Scripture hook line and sinker! Now, a people who have claimed to be "Christian" are destroying themselves and their future generations for failing to "SEEK FIRST THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS."

The Chick Publication that I quoted from was chosen because so many people have seen it. In a nutshell it gives the position of the majority of church people in America. In the next chapter of this book, I am going to give you some information from Scofield's own notes which will prove conclusively the claims that have been made in this chapter.

SCOFIELD'S MILLENIALISM CHANGES THE GOSPEL

CHAPTER FOUR

Scofield's Millennialism Changes the Gospel

Several years ago I told my wife that I wanted to go to a store and buy a Scofield Reference Bible. When I got to the bookstore, hoping to buy one cheaply, I found that the cheapest one in the store was around $50.00. I decided to pass on it for a while. Then several months ago, I was in a used bookstore and came across a first edition printing of Scofield's Reference Bible for $6.00. Even though that was still far more than it was worth, I went on and made the purchase. When I got the book home I immediately began reading through the pages. I first went to the obvious passages, Matthew 24, Joshua 21, both of which are covered in my first book, The Religion of the New World Order. No surprises there; just exactly what I told you in the first book. After reading for a little while, I ended up in Revelation Chapter 14. It was there that I was completely blown away by what I read. Stop for a minute here and answer this simple question for me. How many gospels are there? I don't mean Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. I mean how many ways are there for man to attain salvation? The obvious answer is one. There is only one true way of salvation. That is the gospel. Well exactly what is the gospel? John the Baptist came preaching, Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. Christ came preaching, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Jesus preached in Mark 1 — The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. The disciples went out into the cities preaching that men should repent. In Luke 13, Christ preaches Nay, but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. The apostles continued preaching the same message throughout the book of Acts. Repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. This is the message of salvation. It is the gospel of the kingdom. It is the only gospel message that has the power to change men's lives. The Lord Jesus said, But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

The reason that I asked you how many gospels there were; and the reason why I supplied Scriptures pointing to the fact that the gospel of the kingdom was the only "plan of salvation" was because in Scofield's notes of Revelation 14, he says that there are FOUR GOSPELS. That's right. When I saw that, I just about fell out of my chair. I have been accused of many things through the years concerning what I believe the Bible so clearly teaches about conversion to Christ. I have been accused of believing in Lordship salvation. And I have been accused of believing that a man has to be a theologian before he can be converted. The interesting thing is, though, the people that have made these types of statements are also the same people who sell Scofield Reference Bibles in their churches — from their pulpits — and they are the same ones who teach men that a person can be "saved" and not be a "Christian." In other words, you can claim Christ as a "fire-escape" policy but He doesn't have to be Lord of your life. There is no life-style change necessary, no need of repentance beyond lip service. This corruption of the gospel of repenting for the Kingdom's sake can be traced directly to Scofield; as far as modern day teaching is concerned. However, any approach to "salvation" aside from repentance is the same old Pharisee rot that faced Christ in His day.

In Scofield's notes of Revelation 14 he states:

1 Gospel. This great theme may be summarized as follows:

I. In itself the word Gospel means good news.

II. Four forms of the Gospel are to be distinguished:

(1) The Gospel of the kingdom. This is the good news that God purposes to set up on the earth, in fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant (2 Sam. 7.16 and refs.), a kingdom, political, spiritual, Israelitish, universal, over which God's Son, David's heir shall be King, and which shall be, for one thousand years, the manifestation of the righteousness of God in human affairs. See Mt.3.2, note.

Two preachings of this gospel are mentioned, one past, beginning with the ministry of John the Baptist, continued by our Lord and His disciples, and ending with the Jewish rejection of the King. The other is yet future (Mt. 24.14), during the great tribulation, and immediately preceding the coming of the King in glory. (end quote)

Now look at what Scofield has just said. The first piece of obvious destruction of truth is found in his statement concerning the fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant. This is a gross perversion of the truth. I deal with this in The Religion of the New World Order, but it must be dealt with again. In 2 Samuel 7 God indeed makes a promise to David that would apparently agree with Scofield's teachings. God tells David that out of his bowels would proceed the seed of a King (Christ) who would sit on an everlasting throne and that David's throne would be this coming King's throne and that it would be established forever. Now if you take the words of 2 Samuel 7 and jerk them out of the Scriptures and let them stand alone, then you have no argument. Scofield is right. Everyone go home and wait for the "coming king." But if you simply read the rest of the Scriptures then you must conclude that not only was Scofield a devious liar with a plot to destroy, but those who have followed his teachings are either of the same destructive ilk, or they are simply so far misguided that they can't see the obvious error of this teaching.

LOOK AT ACTS 2. This is the Day of Pentecost, only a few short days removed from the death, burial, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. Peter is preaching to these people concerning THIS JESUS. Not just any Jesus, but THIS SAME JESUS. He was trying to make sure that there was no doubt about which Jesus he was talking about. This was the Jesus that came preaching repentance. Stop the way you're living, make a 180 degree turn and follow me. If you love me, keep my commandments. It was this Jesus that Peter wanted to establish as the one he was talking about. It was the same Jesus that healed the sick, raised the dead, fed five thousand men not including women and children from 2 fish and 5 small loaves of bread. It was the same Jesus that they cried out and said, "WE WILL NOT HAVE THIS MAN TO REIGN OVER US." This was the Jesus that he was talking about. In verse 25, Peter continues saying:

"For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope: Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption."

Can it get much plainer than that? The fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant was the resurrection of Christ! I simply do not understand how this can be dismissed. It doesn't take a theologian to understand this. But it does take a theologian to tell you that it doesn't mean this! Saying that the Davidic Covenant is to be fulfilled in the future is a complete denial of the Jesus Christ of the New Testament. The fulfillment of the Davidic Covenant was a purely Spiritual fulfillment and only those who have eyes to see and ears to hear can understand. Because the promise was Spiritual, this is why the Jews killed Christ. They were looking for the same type of king that Scofield teaches. They were looking for a king that was political, spiritual, Israelitish, over which God's Son, David's heir would be king, and which would be for one thousand years, the manifestation of the righteousness of God in human affairs. THIS IS BLASPHEMY TO THE ULTIMATE EXTREME. It is a complete denial of the Christ of the New Testament.

The purpose of this book is to get people who agree that Christ is King, to start living like it. I have found that you can get any religious person who calls themselves a "christian" (even in the loosest sense of the word) to say that Christ is King. If He is King now, then it simply follows that we should live according to His Kingdom. Hence, a life-style that conforms to His teachings. This means

REPENTANCE. Changing one's mind. A true change of mind will produce a change in behavior. This is simple.

But look what Scofield does. He changes the gospel by saying that Christ is a King to come. The Jews killed Christ because when He told them that His Kingdom was not of this world, then He was not their political, spiritual, Israelitish king that would help them rule the world. Thus, a rejection, denial, and subsequent crucifixion.

John the Baptist, Christ, the disciples, and the apostles, preached repentance. They preached conformity to Christ's kingdom. Conformity to Christ's kingdom means repentance. It means a change of government. You were following the systems of this world and its "non-governments;" but now you have a relationship with the King of Kings and Lord of Lords and you will now walk in His Kingdom and walk in His ways. This is not popular. This is not fashionable. Walking in the Kingdom of Christ poses a threat to those wicked men who have designed and planned for their New World One World Order. So what did they do? They declared SPIRITUAL WARFARE.

They enlisted Scofield, "puffed him," gave him unlimited funds. They used Scofield and his wicked perversion of the Scripture to help them bring about their New One World Order. I will name names and give places and dates later on in this book.

SCOFIELD'S MILLENIALISM CHANGES THE GOSPEL

Scofield successfully eliminated the necessity of repentance with his Scofield Reference Bible. Scofield successfully nullified the words of Christ from Matthew 6:33. Scofield successfully changed the gospel and the masses of peoples in the world today are being led to slaughter all the while claiming to be "saved."

Look again at Scofield's notes in Revelation 14. Christ said, Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. But Scofield says that this teaching was good only from John the Baptist through Christ — but it stopped at the rejection of Christ. He says that it will once again be preached in the future great tribulation period. So what about now??? Scofield and the One World conspirators want you to believe that the gospel of the Kingdom — the gospel of repentance and NON-CONFORMITY TO THIS WORLD — is not for today. He says it is for a future "Great Tribulation" period. Wow! So according to Scofield, you can be a part of the New World Order now, because non-conformity or rather, conformity to Christ's Kingdom, IS IN THE FUTURE! What deception!

Friends, Christ is King now! The Religion of the New World Order proved that all of this New World Order garbage that has been held out as fulfilled Bible prophecy is RELIGIOUS DECEPTION. Scofield wants people to believe that the Gospel of the Kingdom is being reserved for a day in the future of mankind called the "Great Tribulation period." PLEASE, WAKE

UP! There is NO GREAT TRIBULATION PERIOD! The "Great Tribulation period" of Matthew 24 and the book of Revelation is history! It is over! It happened 2,000 years ago and ended with the complete and utter annihilation of Jerusalem and the Jew at the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 A.D. There is no future "Great Tribulation period." There is no unfulfilled Bible prophecy. Christ came to fulfill the law AND the prophets and He did exactly that! Why are His words so hard to believe? I submit to you it is because we have followed men who have contrived Jewish fables. We have been duped by the great deceivers of the world. We have joined in with the Pharisees who rejected the true King in looking for a "coming king." We have bought the lie that one can be "saved" and yet live outside of the Kingdom of Christ. This is heresy at the very least.

Christ's kingdom is now. Everything that you read in the book of Revelation has been fulfilled. When you read that the kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdoms of Christ — that is not future — that is now! For the true believer, there is no government but Christ's. All others are non-governments. We must be about the business of living in the Kingdom. The apostles were talked about in Acts 17 as doing CONTRARY TO ALL THE DECREES OF CAESAR, SAYING THAT THERE IS ANOTHER KING, ONE JESUS!

What am I saying here? Let me make myself perfectly clear. I am not saying that the apostles were preaching against the "government" per se: I am saying that they were preaching for THE GOVERNMENT. Preaching conformity to the Kingdom of Christ certainly appears to be preaching against the non-governments of this world. If that is the perception, then so be it. "WE MUST OBEY GOD RATHER THAN MEN."

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him. And when Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled...

CHAPTER FIVE

The Scofield, Rhodes, Carnegie Connection

I recently received a letter from a man that told me what an idiot I was because I linked Scofield together with Cecil Rhodes and Andrew Carnegie. "Only an idiot would think that just because 3 men lived at the same time in history, they knew each other." This man also went on to say that it was an idiotic thing to think that Oxford University was a "bad school" way back then. The "way back then" that he was referring to was only 91 years ago. The Rhodes Scholarship program was started in 1904 by Cecil John Rhodes at Oxford University. Rhodes' dream of a one-world superstate in which the British controlled was not one that was hidden. He openly wrote and planned such an ideal.

In the early 1950's, a writer for the Chicago Tribune Press Service, William Fulton, wrote a series of articles concerning Cecil Rhodes, Andrew Carnegie, and the works of the Foundations, with the emphasis being on the activities of Rhodes' army, the Rhodes' Scholar. In Fulton's article called Rhodes' Goal: Return U.S. to British Empire, Fulton writes the following:

"New York, July 14 — Cecil John Rhodes, the empire builder, held a lifelong ambition to bring about 'the ultimate recovery of the United States of America as an integral part of the British Empire.'

Today many American Rhodes scholars are working assiduously to make the dream of their imperial patron come true."

He goes on to say that:

"Rhodes cherished schemes for a world-power federation dominated by Anglo-Saxons. His American scholars returning from England are the leaders in the drive to sink Uncle Sam deeper in the morass of the affairs of other countries."

Before continuing, I would like to remind you that this article was not written by some "wild-eyed" "off-the-wall" conspiracy chaser. William Fulton was one of the most respected writers of his day. These articles that I am quoting for you, were written by a writer for the Chicago Tribune Press Service — hardly an underground newspaper.

Let me explain to you exactly what needed to happen to the United States of America Republic before it could be "ultimately recovered by the British as an integral part of the British Empire." In a nutshell, you would have to have the nearly complete collapse of the United States. This means no sovereignty. No self-rule. No United States. Rhodes wanted the United States to be under the thumb of the British again. But there was one minor problem that Rhodes faced. The people had the British removed out of here only about 80 or 90 years before his great idea of recovery. The people had grown fondly accustomed to the idea that they were an independent nation — separate from the British. So Rhodes did not have an easy task. With all of his hundreds of millions of spending power, he had to have a master plan for bringing about his goal — A ONE WORLD SUPERSTATE DOMINATED BY THE ANGLO-SAXONS WITH GREAT BRITAIN LEADING THE WAY.

Fulton begins immediately to show how the American Rhodes Scholar went to work like a busy bee in helping Rhodes attain his goal. One of the first notable examples can be found in J. William Fulbright [D., Arkansas]. Fulbright was a young congressman who was a newly indoctrinated Oxford Rhodes graduate who introduced the resolution proposing the creation of "international machinery" and the participation of the United States. That was in 1943. The United Nations, "police action" in Korea with 78,000 American casualties and other events have followed. Robert Lee Humber, another Rhodes Scholar promoted the first action by any legislative body declaring "that all the peoples of the earth should now be united in a commonwealth of nations." This was a resolution adopted by the North Carolina legislature in 1941.

By now, the skeptic may be saying, "Well, that was 50 years ago. Let's talk about today. The British aren't powerful. They are weak and not a threat to anyone." Before going into more detail, could I remind you of something? Your new President that you elected, who everyone now is screaming that he is destroying your country — is a Rhodes Scholar

(Clinton). Is anyone else in his office a Rhodes Scholar?

Fulton goes on in this same article to say that Rhodes told intimates it might take a century for his "great dream" to be fulfilled. At the time Fulton wrote in 1950, he said that less than half a century has passed, politically it is pointed out, the United States has surrendered some sovereignty to a supra-body, the United Nations, in which the British Foreign Office wields tremendous influence.

While I am quoting to you from an article that was written over 40 years ago, simple browsing through various news services will show you the incredible impact that Rhodes scholars have in the world today. They are busy everywhere you look tearing down independent nations. Examine the activity of certain famous U.S. Senators after they completed their recent business in such places as Iran, The Philippines, and South Africa, just to name a few. Just call the Senator's offices, like I did just a few minutes ago and ask them about the Senator's education. The individual that answers your call will proudly tell you, "He was a Rhodes Scholar!" Iran used to be an ally of the United States, then somehow the Shah of Iran seemed to become world enemy #1. Next, the Shah is deposed and on comes the real ally of the U.S. — Ayatollah Khomeini. The Philippines used to be a great ally of the U.S. — then Ferdinand Marcos becomes world-enemy #1. Next, Marcos is ousted, then dead, then civil unrest in the Philippines and "poof" — Aquino. Out goes the U.S. What about South Africa? An independent nation producing a large portion of the world's gold supply. Rhodes Scholars come in dividing a nation through race wars, and "poof" down goes the nation (or soon to go).

I keep hearing about the things that the Clinton Administration is doing that seem to be so counter-productive to the U.S. Well, given the fact that he is a Rhodes Scholar, he's just following his education. Now I want to say something at this point because so many people in America that call themselves "conservatives" blame everything that they don't like on the Democrats. But the simple truth is that there are many, many Republicans that have filled the ranks of the Rhodes Scholarship program. This is a joint effort. This effort knows no party lines.

When Fulton wrote his expose' in the 1950's he certainly did his homework. His names, dates, places and figures surpasses anything that I could begin to do today. I think that it is interesting to look further at this particular article as he gives a complete analysis of where the Rhodes activity was taking place at the time of his writing. He says:

"Rhodes scholars also command posts in the United Nations and economic cooperation administration. The returning savants are active in the field of opinion molding with a large sprinkling among the eastern internationalist press, magazines, and radio.

It is noteworthy to go into a little bit of Cecil Rhodes' background as it was explored by William Fulton. Fulton says that in Rhodes first will, a document which he titled, Confessions of Faith, he wrote in 1877 that:

"I have felt that at the present day we are actually limiting our children and perhaps bringing into the world half the human beings we might, owing to the lack of country for them to inhabit, that if we had retained America there would be at the present moment many more of English living. I contend that we are the finest race in the world and that the more of the world we inhabit the better it is for the human race.”

Rhodes goes on to spell out in more detail his goals for a one-world federation:

"The extension of British rule thruout the world, the perfecting of a system of emigration from the United Kingdom and of the colonization by British subjects of all lands wherein the means of all livelihood are attainable by energy, labor, and enterprise, and especially the occupation by British settlers of the entire continent of Africa, the Holy land, the valley of Euphrates, the islands of Cyprus and Candia, the whole of South America, the islands of the Pacific not heretofore possessed by Great Britain, the whole of the Malay of archipelago, the seaboard of China and Japan, the ultimate recovery of the United States of America as an integral part of the British empire. The consolidation of the whole empire, the inauguration of a system of colonial representation in the imperial parliament which may tend to weld together the disjointed members of the empire, and finally the foundation of so great a power as to hereafter render wars impossible and promote the best interest of humanity.”

You don't have to be a rocket scientist to see where the impetus for the New World One World Order has its modern day foundations. We are talking about a man who was one of the wealthiest men to ever walk on this planet. This was a man who proudly had an agenda, if not a complete obsession for a one-world superstate. Rhodes' will (actually there were 7 in all) outlines the use of world-wide secret societies set up and ran for the purpose of promoting the British empire. Rhodes openly planned the infiltration of every government of every nation for the express purpose of promoting his goal.

Fulton continues his expose' of the Rhodes scholar on July 15, in an article called Rhodes Ideals Slant State Dept. Policies. In the article, Fulton claims that several top U.S. officials, who were Rhodes scholars, intentionally slant U.S. policy for the purpose of advancing Rhodes ideals. He says that Rhodes intimates have admitted that the scholarships were established for the primary purpose of instilling "political bias" rather than providing education. Fulton keeps trying to ram home the fact that the influence of Rhodes scholars in the United Nations led to the Korean war that killed over 78,000 American men. He says that two men in particular, Assistant Secretary of State Dean Rusk, in charge of eastern affairs, and Assistant Secretary of State George C. McGhee, in charge of near eastern, south Asian, and African affairs were deeply involved in the Korean debacle. Fulton says that Rhodes scholars for years had a "throttlehold" on the U.S. policy towards the near east. He says that Rusk took the place of another Rhodes scholar, W. Walton Butterworth in March 1950. All of this nominating to posts and positions is an entire can of worms that Fulton goes into in great detail. Suffice it to say that there was incredible Rhodes scholar influence in government during the time Fulton wrote these articles.

On July 16, Fulton wrote an article with the headline, Rhodes' Ideas Find Fertile Ground in U.N. He says that Rhodes scholars are prominent in the affairs of the United Nations. The U.N. is an outgrowth of schemes developed by the scholars' patron, Cecil Rhodes, the British empire builder. Rhodes dreamed of an Anglo-Saxon federation with the British dominating, an organization powerful enough to police the world and preserve the peace. Recently a supposedly Conservative publication from Washington D.C. ran an article that debunked the Rhodes One World Order connection. The article said that while Rhodes at one time had the destruction of America as a goal, the goal of the modern day Rhodes scholar has changed. From what has been reprinted from Fulton's original articles over 40 years ago, how can anyone in their right mind say that Rhodes' goals have changed? What Fulton wrote about for the Chicago Tribune Press Service 50 years ago, could easily have been printed in this morning's edition. Just change the names of the players. You have "conservative Republican" presidents coining phrases like — New World Order — and then the next thing you know, poof, his successor is a full fledged Rhodes scholar graduate and darn proud of it. Wake up, America.

Fulton's articles were very interesting, as well as informative. The angle that he approached the subject with was excellent. He first dealt with Rhodes and a little of his background. He then talked about the Rhodes scholarship and the U.S. government. Then he talked about the Rhodes scholar and foreign government. Then he talked about the Rhodes scholar and the U.N. The next thing that I want to briefly touch on is an article that he wrote concerning the Rhodes scholar and the Global Foundations. This article ran on July 20th with a headline that said, Rhodes' Wards Head Global Foundations. Fulton claims that the higher echelon offices in the Carnegie, Rockefeller and other privately-endowed foundations are held by Rhodes scholars. Rhodes left his fortune for the conversion of scholars who would promote his dream of an Anglo-Saxon federation to dominate the world. In this way Rhodes hoped to return the United States to the (British) empire. Fulton accuses the Carnegie and Rockefeller institutions of contributing heavily toward "international" studies to further the United Nations and other supra-governmental plans designed at chipping away American sovereignty. They have also financed organizations and students which according to congressional sources, smack of communism, in itself a form of internationalism.

Someone once said, "The more things change, the more they stay the same." Isn't that the truth? Fulton links the big money foundations to such globalist organizations as the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, World Peace Foundation, Foreign Policy Association, Council of Foreign Relations, and Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The former president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace was a man named Alger Hiss. At the time Fulton wrote his articles, he said that Hiss was the state department adviser for Roosevelt at the Yalta conference and that he was currently serving sentence in a federal prison for perjury involving war time espionage for the Russians. At that time, 2 top Carnegie execs were Rhodes scholars, Whitney H. Shepardson, director for the Carnegie Corporation British and Colonies fund, and O.C. Carmichael, president of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. An interesting connection on how Rhodes scholars "stick together" was provided in this article. Fulton relates how the Carnegie corporation gave an $800,000 grant to Harvard University for the Russian research center. At that time it was the largest and most extensive research setup of its kind in the western world. The center was directed by C.K. M. Kluckhohn, a Rhodes scholar.

In this article, Fulton begins to link Andrew Carnegie, another rich tycoon of the Rhodes era with Rhodes' ideals. At the time of Fulton's articles in the 1950's, Carnegie's assets were valued at 173 million dollars. He says that Carnegie, British born steel magnate, left funds "for the advancement and diffusion of knowledge among the people of the United States and of the British dominions and colonies." His ideas paralleled those of Cecil Rhodes. I have a copy of a book written by Carnegie himself in which he says many of the exact same things that Cecil Rhodes dreamed of. The two were most obviously part of the same mold. How much do you think that these two men could have accomplished toward reaching their goals with the amount of spending power that they both had? I submit to you that these two men launched such an attack on this world that has been so complete, so devious, and so well devised, that very few men, have realized what has been done. The people that fill this earth have been duped because of their naivete and ignorance. A Rhodes scholar is one who is revered and hailed by virtually everyone on the planet. We believe things and do things as a people without the first bit of questioning or investigating. We are so brainwashed (braindirtied) by the media, by the preachers, and by the politicians that we are destroying the futures of our offspring and we're darn proud of it!

Fulton's articles go on and on about Rhodes scholars, foundations, politicians and such. The evidence of their collusion with Rhodes and his goals is overwhelming. Rhodes dreamed of a one-world super-state government dominated by the Anglo-Saxon. Is that not exactly what is being played out on the world stage today? Even though Fulton's articles were written in the 1950's didn't you find yourself reading those articles and applying the facts to today? His articles may as well have appeared in today's paper! The governments of the U.S. are filled with a who's who listing of Rhodes scholars.

I have talked with so many people through the years who are perplexed by the acts of the politicians year after year. It doesn't matter whether they call themselves Republicans or Democrats — they all seem to be bent on destroying America. How many times have I heard people say, "Keep the money here! They send billions out of the country, but don't do anything about the problems here." Well, friend, I hate to tell you — but they are only keeping the tradition of the Rhodes scholar and the preacher. It's all about the destruction of America.

We've all heard about the "dumbing down of America." Some claim that there is a concerted effort to make Americans "dumber." Could this be true? Could this be part of the Rhodes plan? Of course it could — AND IS. What about NAFTA? Could it be part of the Rhodes plan?

I believe that this "dumbing" of America is absolutely vital to the success of the Rhodes plan. The United States of America for years has seemed to be the envy of the rest of the world. Its citizens are perfectly content with the delusion that they have freedom, and I suppose compared to the rest of the world, it is still appealing to those in foreign lands. But in order to fit into Rhodes scheme of a New World One World Order, all of the peoples of the world must be on an equal plane. In other words, rather than improving the standard of living to bring the other people up to the U.S. standard, the U.S. must be brought down to the rest of the world's level. I get a big kick out of these great "mastermind, respected, economic geniuses," such as Lee Iacoca and those of his ilk. They are always pushing for higher gasoline prices in order to bring the U.S. more in line with the rest of the world. What kind of logic is this? This is the logic of the Rhodes ideals. What hardworking American finds it logical to think that he should pay higher gasoline prices just because someone in Europe is paying three times more? This is just the insanity that I am referring to. This is the mindset of the New World One World Order think-tanks. It is illogical to the ordinary person on the street, yet it is part of a grand scheme to bring about a One World Superstate. I read recently where the average "middle class" American lived in a 13 room house and had two servants around the turn of the century. Today, the people that are considered "rich" don't even fit those descriptions. What has happened? Examine NAFTA for a minute. I heard people claim that the Mexicans work for 50 cents per hour. So, NAFTA is supposed to help those people. You have people in America working for $5.00 an hour. How far apart is ¢50 from $5.00? When you're making that little amount, there isn't much difference. You're both in a pretty sad way. You have people in America say that NAFTA was going to be bad for America. So what's really happening? They're trying to even out the plane. They're trying to bring about the Rhodes goal — that's what is happening.

The United States has been bombarded with philosophies, policies, and beliefs that are blatantly counter-productive for the United States. The reason is simple. Rhodes wanted the "ultimate recovery of the United States as an integral part of the British empire." In order to bring this about, he had to devise a plan to destroy the sovereignty of the Republic. Not only the Republic of the U.S., but the republics of the entire world. He dreamed of a one-world government. All of the nations of the world would give up their sovereignty to Rhodes' one-world superstate. Try to deny it — you can't! It's everywhere you look. Say it's too far fetched to be true — you can't. How many times have you said, "If I just had a little more spending power, I could do this, or that." Well, Rhodes and Carnegie had virtually limitless spending power. They could buy virtually anything or anyone that they wanted. And do it over and over and over. Rhodes was a patient man. He even realized that he probably would not see his goals accomplished in his lifetime. He wrote that it may take his ideals 100 years to be realized. The advantage that Rhodes had was not necessarily a financial edge, although that certainly didn't hurt. Rhodes clear advantage was that he knew that if it took 100 years to accomplish his task, then he had 100 years. If he needed 200 years, he had it. Rhodes was not tied to this "end of world" garbage philosophy — he hadn't yet promoted it throughout the world so he could use it to his advantage.

Yes! I am saying that Rhodes not only created the political means for bringing about his one-world government, but he created the spiritual means.

CHAPTER SIX

Scofield and Rhodes

In the previous chapter I started by saying that I had received a letter from a man who said that I was an idiot for linking Scofield, Rhodes and Carnegie together simply because they were alive at the same time in history. Recently I spoke with a man who is probably one of the foremost authorities in America today on the life of C.I. Scofield. Joseph Canfield wrote a book called, The Incredible Scofield and his Book. I highly recommend the book to everyone! In speaking with Mr. Canfield, I asked him if he had proof that Scofield, Rhodes and Carnegie were associates. He said unequivocally yes! He told me that it was well-hidden, but it was definitely true.

Now I will be the first one to admit to you that outside of the obvious, I do not have the same proof that Mr. Canfield has. I do not intend to go to any efforts to gain the facts that he has. If they were dropped in my lap, then I would most certainly study the facts and present them as they were presented to me. The very fact that Scofield's Reference Bible was copyrighted by Oxford University in 1917 and printed at the Oxford Press is all of the evidence that I need to say that there was absolutely a connection between those three men. Whether they sat down in some dark corner of some basement somewhere in collusion is immaterial. Scofield's writings bare out the facts that whether it was physical or spiritual or whatever, there was most definitely a Scofield, Rhodes, Carnegie connection.

Rhodes wrote of a one-world superstate. Scofield confirmed it. Rhodes wrote that his race was superior and therefore should dominate the world. Scofield confirmed it. For instance, exactly what does Scofield mean when he writes on Page 160 in his book, What Do the Prophets Say? —

“The futility of the ideal commonwealths of Plato and the others is precisely the futility of all superficial optimism — the notion that for the common good men are going to give up ambition, greed and pride. We read their Utopias with a little sadness. The race, after all, is one; and it is a kind of corporate logic which keeps the hope of a golden age alive in the universal human mind. It is the conviction, vague and undefined but real, that the divine wisdom and power in the human experiment requires a majestic vindication — a vindication that can only come through a reign of righteousness and love in the human social order.”

Scofield goes on to say that man has an inner urge toward perfect social order and that there is a golden age made sure by the covenants and promises of the Almighty. But with this teaching of Scofield, he runs into an admitted road-block with

“Doubtless the whole subject has been made an offense to many sincere and well-meaning students of the Bible by the too exclusively Jewish conception of the "age to come" in controversies over it. That the coming age is to fulfill the Davidic Covenant of the earth-rule of Messiah, as explained by the Prophets and confirmed by the oath of Jehovah and the message through Gabriel, is most true. But the New Testament lifts the work and purpose of the age to come into a breadth and majesty far beyond the promises to Israel, while including — nay, resting upon, those promises....The Davidic Covenant is indeed to be fulfilled in the age to come, but a vastly grander thing is fulfilled — the destiny of the race.”

What? Who's race? Scofield's notes on Matthew 24 tell you plainly that he believes and promotes the heresy of the "jew" as God's chosen people. In my first book, The Religion of the New World Order, I show you how he completely bald-face lies to say that the word generation in verse 34 comes from the Greek word genea (which is correct) but he gives the reader the definition for the Greek word genos, thus, changing the entire meaning of the passage. Scofield transforms the gospel of personal salvation into a gospel of nationalism and internationalism. Scofield established a scheme of unfulfilled

Bible prophesy in his reference Bible of 1917. In it he prophesies the "regathering of the Jews to Palestine." Poof! What happens in 1948? The nation of Israel is restored! Hallelujah — look what God did! No, oh my, look what Cecil Rhodes and the Rhodes scholars duped the world into believing was the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Thus, when the incorporated churches and bible colleges in America fell for the deception, they immediately gave credibility to Scofield's scheme of Bible prophecy. The nation of Israel becoming a state in 1948 was no more the fulfillment of Bible prophecy than the man in the moon. Just take any encyclopedia that you can find and look up Israel. It will tell you that on May 13, 1948, the British controlled Palestine and at midnight May 14, 1948, the British gave up the land so that it could prop up the new state of Israel and proclaim it as the fulfillment of Bible prophecy!

Scofield's Reference Bible and his other writings try to convince people that the earth is in her final days. The earth-rule of the Messiah, a one-world, political, universal, spiritual, Israelitish government will soon take over all of the governments of the world. This is the message of British Israel. The British Israelite believes that the lost tribes of Israel migrated to Great Britain. They believe that it is their destiny to rule the world. They actually believe that the throne in England is the actual throne of King David and when they are ready, they will take the throne from England, to Jerusalem, and there they will rule the world in their divinely prophesied one world government.

SCOFIELD & RHODES

I was recently challenged to find "one word" in the Scofield Reference Bible that supports British Israelism. The interesting thing about this challenge is that I could simply just hand over the book to the man. In one of the best books that I have ever read, called the Union Jack, the writer gives some of the best evidence of Scofield's collusion that can be found. The following is quoted directly from a book written by William C. Nabors in 1944. Nabors is a British Israelite and was one of the foremost writers within the British Israel World Federation. In his book, PROPHECY ON PARADE, here's what Nabors had to say:

page 188..."the plan of the Bible requires and demands the reunion of the British Commonwealth and the United States to furnish the leadership of the nations of Israel"...

What this means is that as the empire increases, America decreases and a share in the loot is the only bait. The United States is the loot and most prized of all. The British Israel teaching is that the U.S. is the lend lease of Manasseh and it is America's lot to finance her own destruction.

On page 94 of PROPHECY ON PARADE, Nabors continues in speaking of a justification for the coming tribulation that Scofield prophesies as getting ready to take place on the earth.

"This judgement will destroy the last phase of this Gentile power and elevate to world rule a corrected, purified and restored Israel....

(then on page 58)...

When the smoke of this World War and the effect of the worldwide famine passes, the British empire and America will emerge as the possessors of the only surviving economy and will take their places to heal a world that will then be ready for a doctor. The throne of David will be at the head of world government and the American dollar and the British pound sterling, perfectly and righteously blended together and freed from all marks of Babylon, shall dominate the commerce of the world....

the solution for world peace lies in world commerce....Let us remind ourselves again that the throne of David which we now identify as the throne of the British Commonwealth in London was established forever (II Samuel 7:8-16). All talk of the collapse of the British Empire and the removal of its government seat is therefore definitely not of the book. David's throne is as sure as day and night." (my emphasis added)

On page 146 of PROPHECY ON PARADE, Nabors reveals to his reader the purpose of the coming Great Tribulation that Scofield says is in our future.

"But in the final struggle in the time of judgement, all nations will be involved and Israel will be reunited. The reunion first to take place is between Ephraim (Britain) and Manasseh (U.S.) to reunite the sons of Joseph who inherit the leadership of the elect."

What you must realize is that through Scofield's Reference Bible, this Great Tribulation period which will bring about the demise of the United States of America is to take place and the people of the U.S. are begging for it because they have bought this lie that it is the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Nabors states on Page 159:

"The goal is to establish the kingdom of God on earth; and the road is a series of human experiences planned in the Divine foreknowledge of God dealing with the peoples of the world to produce the goal. When we understand the plan of the Bible for culminating events, we readily see all world affairs since the beginning of World War I conform to a plan exactly fitting the writings of the prophets." (my emphasis added)

What Nabors is really saying is that through the use of religion, i.e., Scofield's millennialism, and the reverent Rhodes scholar, history is being enacted to fit the writings of the prophets and then events are explained and justified to the people in terms of them being the fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

Between this chapter and the last one, what I have tried to do was give you a sketch of a conspiracy on such a high plane that its depth and vastness is almost incomprehensible. I showed you the history of the Rhodes scholar and showed you how their activity has affected the world scene. What I have just shown you about British Israelism should have absolutely appalled you. These two instruments have openly admitted that they are playing with the United States like a child plays with a toy. The United States is considered a puppet in the hands of these conspirators who have a larger plan than just the recovery of the United States as a notch on their belt. I have demonstrated the deviousness of Rhodes. I have demonstrated the deviousness of British Israel. Both of these ideals could and should have volumes written about them in exposing their sinisterness. Frankly, I'm at such a point of disgust that I really want to move onto the issue of the Kingship of Christ. But I must show this connection in order to demonstrate to the people of America and to the world for that matter, what happened to the true gospel of the Kingdom of Christ. It has been forcefully hidden, attacked and discredited because a few men dreamed of a one-world super-state dominated by the British. The glorious gospel of the Kingdom of Christ is the only real threat to the realization of these wicked men's plans.

Scofield is the modern day American preacher who is responsible for snowballing this change in the gospel of the kingdom. In THE TRIUMPH OF BRITISH ISRAEL, by Rev. James Mountain, D.D., a noted British Israelite author, Mountain tells his readers that:

SCOFIELD & RHODES

"It will be observed that we make frequent quotations from 'THE SPEAKERS COMMENTARY,' one of the most learned of its day, and prepared largely by Bishops of the Church of England; also from 'SCOFIELD REFERENCE BIBLE' which was prepared by eight of the most learned and eminent American Divines, including the Rev. Arthur T. Pierson, D.D., who for many years was a regular speaker at the Keswick Convention. When the name of Dr. Scofield only is given, SCOFIELD'S REFERENCE BIBLE is to be understood."

Now to be completely impartial and upfront, I need to finish the quote. Please take note however, that the above statement was said by one of the main leaders from the British Israel World Federation. He has just finished saying that the Scofield Reference Bible is one that many British Israelite quotations are taken from. Now here's the rest of the quote:

"So far as we know, none of the Authors of these valuable Commentaries has given any direct endorsement of British-Israel teaching. But our readers will perceive that their interpretations of many important parts of the Holy Scripture furnish valuable indirect support to the fundamental statements of British-Israel advocates."

In another British Israel World Federation book, called THE JUDGEMENT OF THE NATIONS IN THE GREAT PYRAMID'S PROPHECY, by David Davidson, page 25 states:

SCOFIELD & RHODES

"We are now, obviously, at the beginning of the period of prophecy known as the time of 'Jacob's trouble' (Jer. 30). The best guide to the significance of that 'trouble,' in relation to our own history, is the life of Jacob, particularly when 'mystically' interpreted under the helpful guidance of the annotations and headings in The Holy Bible: WITH SCOFIELD REFERENCES...(his emphasis, not mine)

...Dr. Scofield's marginal annotations to Genesis 33 are instructive as to the successive steps of Jacob."

The truth is, Scofield's Bible develops a World Israelite political state which he says is promised to the seed of Abraham. He teaches the coming of a new Judaic Heaven on earth within Christian concepts and language and this exactly fits the fictitious Christianity of British Israel.

From the words of the British Israelite World Federation, there is rousing support and recommendation for their followers to read Scofield's Reference Bible. You now have a connection between Rhodes and Scofield with the Scofield Reference Bible being copyrighted and printed at Oxford. Now you have a connection between the British Israel World Federation and Scofield. You have his obvious teachings concerning the gospel of the Kingdom being invalid for today. What else do you need?

SCOFIELD & RHODES

Scofield's millennialism is a tool of the New World One World Order conspirators. Those American churches that teach Scofield's futuristic ideals are part of it. Scofield was used by Rhodes to neutralize the only real threat to a one world superstate — the gospel of the Kingdom of Christ.

The globalists could care less who promotes globalism - or why they are promoting it. They simply want globalism promoted. The “churches” are deceived into believing their version of a one-world government is godly and righteous - but in all reality - they are doing the work of Satan in the name of Christ.

Now let's get to where the rubber meets the road.

CHAPTER SEVEN

Kingdom Living

I have tried to convince you that taking a position that the world events being staged today are fulfillments of Bible prophecy is exactly what the enemy has wanted. To say that there is unfulfilled Bible prophecy is to say that Christ failed in His mission 2,000 years ago. To say that there is unfulfilled Bible prophecy is to say the gospel of the Kingdom is not for today. It is for a time yet in our future.

Beginning with Scofield, and then gaining momentum with each successive graduating class of "bible students," Scofield's futuristic scheme of unfulfilled bible prophecy strengthens the power that the New World One World Order crowd has over the peoples of the world. With each international event that occurs, the preachers armed with Scofield's Oxford views, tell their loyal pew fillers that they have just witnessed another fulfillment of Bible prophecy. "We are nearing the end. The day of the Lord is soon at hand." This gives added strength to the deception and lie of Rhodes-Carnegie. The people of this world stand in a readiness to see the fulfillment of the time of Jacob's trouble. "But, alas, before that day comes, we the faithful, will be raptured away!"

What does this thinking do? It creates an atmosphere of apathy. Exactly what Rhodes needed. The religious people take on the idea that everything happening today is the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Therefore, not only is there nothing that you can do about it, there is nothing that you should do about it. No obstacles. Nothing messy. Rhodes is accomplishing his dreams, and the people of the world — led by Fundamentalist pastors — are begging for it!

What if what I have said to you is true? What if all of this "stuff" that is going on in the world today is not the fulfillment of Bible prophecy? What if Christ's Kingdom is NOW and not one that is a political, universal, spiritual, Israelitish one that Scofield talks about? What if the gospel of the Kingdom is the only gospel capable of regenerating a lost man and bringing him to a place of salvation with God?

If this is true, then the situation that we have allowed ourselves to be put into by following false leaders is one of such far reaching consequence that it is almost incomprehensible to realize how far removed we are from the true gospel of the kingdom of Christ.

If Christ's kingdom is now, then truly Rhodes and his cronies would run head into the messiest situation that they would have ever thought about. The reason being, if Christ is King now, then the responsibility of the believer would be one of obedience to our Lord's teaching concerning non-conformity to this world's system. But as it is now, Rhodes' deception has been one that has convinced the American "christian" that his responsibility is one of conformity to this world system and non-conformity to the true Kingdom of Christ. The reasoning coming from Scofield's teaching is that Christ is not King now — but He is a King to come. When He sets up His Kingdom, then the responsibility of conforming to His Kingdom will be in place. Just not now.

John the Baptist came preaching repentance because the Kingdom of heaven was at hand. What did that mean? If you believe the Scriptures as they read, then you believe that John must have meant that the Kingdom of heaven was soon to be in place. At hand. Just around the corner. Close by. At any minute. Now those are words that don't cost you very much. If I were a Scofield type theologian with a D.D. behind my name I could get a lot of money from you by saying, "Well, John the Baptist was really talking about the Dispensation of time that would see the fulfillment of the Eschatological teachings of the Major Prophets which were recorded in ...ah forget it, I can't even talk like them! The point is, when John the Baptist preached the Kingdom is at hand, that's what he meant. When Christ preached the kingdom of heaven is at hand, that's what He meant. He wasn't saying to those people, "If you love me, keep my commandments. Then when the Jews officially reject me, you can still love me without doing what I say. Then for the next 2,000 years, all of those people can love me and disregard what I say. Then, in the Great Tribulation period, you start preaching the kingdom again." That's kind of stupid isn't it?

KINGDOM LIVING

Christ came to this earth preaching a message of how life should be. He taught people how their Creator had intended for them to live. He never one time said it was okay for people to live in sin and disobedience and yet be able to be a part of His Kingdom. In fact, He said the exact opposite. This is probably why so many people want to remove His Kingdom from its correct place and put it somewhere in the future. But just because His Kingdom is misunderstood, doesn't mean that we have a right to say that it doesn't exist. Even before the complete and full implementation of His Kingdom, He told His disciples that He had ALL POWER AND AUTHORITY IN HEAVEN AND IN EARTH....Go ye therefore. He gave them all of the authority that they ever needed! Can you just imagine this? After those disciples had lived with Christ for those years, had witnessed all of the wonderful things that He had done, had seen Him crucified and then raised from dead; can you just imagine those disciples going to some man somewhere and asking him for permission to live the way that Christ told them to?

Christ had something to say about virtually every aspect of life. I said that I was going to begin where the rubber meets the road so I am just going to jump right in and get started.

Social Security...Nothing New Under the Sun

In Mark 7, a very interesting section of dialogue is taking place between Christ and the Pharisees.

KINGDOM LIVING

Essentially the Pharisees were blasting Christ and His disciples because they were not adhering to the traditions of the Jews, specifically, of washing their hands before they eat. This was the perfect opportunity for Christ to set them straight concerning some of their other traditions. In verse 6 Christ responds to the Pharisees by saying that they:

“Honoureth God with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. For Moses said, Honour thy father and mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death: But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother; Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many other such like things do ye.”

What is Christ saying here? The Creator designed things so that when mom and dad got too old to take care of themselves, it then became the responsibility of the children to take care of their parents needs. But the Jews decided they didn't like that particular plan so they came up with their own. It was called Corban. Each individual that wanted to be "legally" released from the responsibility of taking care of their elderly parents would contribute to a central fund, called Corban. When they contributed, the high priest would then give them a release from the law of God. Does this sound even remotely familiar? This plan was nothing more or less than today's Social Security system. The children don't have to take care of mom and dad, the "government" can. And yet, Christ the King said if you participate in this program, you make God's word of no effect in your life. In other words, God's word, which is the only power that regenerates a spiritually dead person's soul, is rendered powerless because of the tradition of men.

What did Christ the King expect from the people that He told this to? Did He expect them just to keep on participating in it? Were they some sort of special people that they could continue to blaspheme their Creator's foundational principles of life and yet be a part of God's Kingdom? Did Christ expect His followers to come out of the Corban system? Did He want them to recognize that the King was telling them to conform to His Kingdom, which in turn would appear to be non-conformity to the world's system?

I think the answer to this question is clear. The Lord Jesus meant for those that would follow Him to repent of their wrong ways and live the way that He had intended them to live from the beginning of Creation.

KINGDOM LIVING

In a conversation that I had recently with an individual that I felt was sincerely seeking truth, he told me that he felt that the issue of Social Security and the Social Security number was basically a "non-issue." He said that it was bordering on "Phariseeism." This response is really interesting in light of the Mark 7 passage. The Pharisee was the one who participated in (Corban) Social Security and encouraged others to participate. It was Christ who told those Pharisees that participating in Corban made God's word of no effect in their lives. To say that not being involved in Social Security is borderline "Phariseeism," is to say that Christ taught "Phariseeism." What I am trying to get people to realize is that as of A.D. 70, Christ's Kingdom was completely instituted and it is allegiance to His Kingdom and His ways is what life is all about.

What did Paul mean when he wrote in II Timothy 2:2-4 — And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier...? What is being said here? I go back to the early pages of this book when I told you about the guy who said to me that all of these "issues," i.e., Social Security, Labor tax, licensing, etc., were sidetracking me and entangling me with the affairs of this life. This fellow is simply not thinking correctly. The one who entangles himself with the Social Security number, the Labor tax, the licensing, etc., he is the one who is entangled! Not the one who lives without those things.

Living without those "entanglements" is not some life-style that is chosen out of the clear blue. It is because we have another King. Our King does not make those requirements of His subjects. Our King rewards the Labourer — He doesn't tax him. Our King gives freedom to His subjects — not restraint. Our King deals fairly and honestly with His subjects. Our King wants men to flourish because of the work of their hands. Our King wants His subjects to live without debt because He knows that the borrower is servant to the lender. Conversely, the non-kingdoms of this world, encourage men to be in debt by giving them tax breaks and incentives for incurring debt and racking up interest.

Living in the Kingdom of Christ now certainly gives one the idea that the world is in need of being turned completely upside down, doesn't it? Participating in the "system" causes an individual to live totally contrary to the teachings of Christ in virtually every aspect of life. I have given you what I believe to be a clear teaching of Christ's on the issue of Social Security. I have frequently used the term "labor tax," throughout my writings. What am I referring to?

Living in conformity to this world system means participating in acts, that according to the clear teachings of Scripture would result in God turning a deaf ear to the prayers of those trying to reach Him. Now if you believe that you can be "saved" and not be a "Christian," then these issues are just "non-issues." But if Christ is King now, then this changes the whole scenario of things. I just dealt with the "non-issue" of Social Security. The group of individuals that live in America that call themselves "Patriots" are among most "thinking" people that have an innate uneasiness (at the least) with the supposed Income Tax. Why? Why do most people have some form of contempt for the Income Tax? The "Patriots" say they don't like it because it violates their beloved Constitution. What I am suggesting to people is that they find an authority higher than the Constitution before they go about risking life and property for their cause. The Constitution is not a high enough authority for this writer to risk anything over.

Conformity to the Kingdom of Christ means non-conformity to anything that would jeopardize my obedience and allegiance to my King. The Income Tax is so blatantly anti-Christ, anti-God, anti-Bible that I am thoroughly amazed that it hasn't even been "stumbled on" by the masses of people. Everywhere you look in the Scripture, taxing labor is blasted. For this booklet, I will begin my examination in Ecclesiastes 3:12-13. The Scripture says, which incidentally was written by Solomon, who was probably the wisest man to live outside of Christ Himself, ...I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. And that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labor, it is the gift of God. Now how much of a man's labor does God want him to enjoy? All of it. Not the net after taxes. All of it. This is such a basic foundational element in the Creation of man by his Creator. In II Thessalonians 3:10, the Apostle Paul instructs his readers along the same line as Ecclesiastes 3. Paul says: For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. Verse 11 — For we hear that there are among you some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. What does the combination of these two passages of Scripture say? First, that God intended for a man to labor. Then, God intends for a man to profit from his labor. As a result of this, God intends for a man to enjoy the benefits of ALL his labor. It's God's gift for obeying one of the foundational precepts that the Creator designed for His creation. Paul says if a man doesn't work, then he doesn't eat. If this is what is expected, then it is abundantly obvious that God intends for man to receive and partake of the fruits of his labor. If a man doesn't work — then he doesn't eat. That's Kingdom living. But if a man does work — then let him enjoy the good of ALL HIS LABOR. YOU DON'T TAX LABOR — IT'S PART OF KINGDOM LIVING.

You know in Indiana, it is still against the law to tax labor. The other day I had a clogged up drain. I did what every other red-blooded man would do — I worked on that stupid thing trying to fix it myself until I frustrated myself beyond description and then called the plumber. Well that plumber fixed that stupid drain in a matter of minutes. All that Liquid Plumber that I bought went to waste. That guy fixed the drain in 10 minutes! Since he was so efficient and fixed my problem so well, I decided to have him do another little plumbing job for me. That job required some plumbing parts so he left for a few minutes to go the hardware store and get the parts that he needed. Anyway, when the guy handed me the bill, it went like this:

Labor 1 hour — amount due....	$35.00
Parts — amount due.....	$ 2.50
Tax — amount due.....	.13
Total amount due.....	$37.63

From looking at the figures above, tax was only calculated on the sale of the parts. Why? Because in Indiana, it is still against the law to tax labor! Look at the bills you get all of the time. Most of the bills are divided in two separate categories, taxable and non-taxable. That's because in virtually all of the States, it is still unlawful to tax labor. Where did this law come from? From the Constitution? Hardly. This came right out of the Scriptures. Need some more Scriptural proof? Sure.

Look at Isaiah 58. This is a very important passage of Scripture. Years ago when I came across this passage I began shouting from the roof-tops! While this passage is quoted from the Old Covenant, I find its importance and relevance extremely valuable because of Paul's reaffirmation of it frequently in the New Testament. Verse one starts with God telling Isaiah to:

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgressions, and the house of Jacob their sins.

Verse one is vital because God had to raise up Isaiah to show these people what they were doing wrong. The people did not even realize that what they were doing was sin. God had to raise up His prophet to instruct the people that their ways were wrong and that they needed to do something about it. Verse 2:

Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

These people WERE SINCERELY RELIGIOUS PEOPLE. God did not question their sincerity. These people were honestly seeking God. Yet in verse three they cry:

Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge?

These people were crying out to God. They were fasting — but God didn't see it. They were afflicting their souls — but God didn't see it! What could they have possibly been doing that God would not even acknowledge their pleadings? The answer is in the last part of verse three.

KINGDOM LIVING

Behold, in the day of your fast, ye find pleasure and exact all your labours.

What? That's what I said the first time I read it. God was upset with them because they were too accurate in their labour? Ever heard of new speak? Here's a perfect example. The word exact as it is found here comes from the Hebrew word nagas which means to drive, (an animal, a workman, a debtor, an army) by implication TO TAX. A RAISER OF TAXES! Here again, God despises TAXING LABOR!!! The word Behold is used here to describe the incredibleness (if such a word exists) that God's people were involved in such a horrible thing. Behold is the same type of word that was used when the angel told Mary that she was going to have a baby. This is incredible! This is unbelievable! A virgin was going to have a baby! The people think they are religious and are right with God — but they TAX LABOR! Now what would you guys like to do with your constant quotings that GOD NEVER CHANGES; THE SAME YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND FOREVER!?! Want to go back and see if you can find a loophole somewhere? Did God decide to change His opinion on taxing labor because all the religious people in America didn't know that God doesn't like taxing labor?

There was obviously a time in this country when men knew that God despised a tax on labor. What happened? Do you think that maybe Scofield and Rhodes had anything to do with men somehow not knowing that God despises a tax on labor? Bill Benson, a renowned "Patriot" did an absolutely fantastic service to "Patriots." He traveled to all of the States that participated in the supposed ratification of the 16th Amendment to the Constitution. That's the one that gave Congress the power to raise and collect taxes on incomes from whatever source derived....etc.,etc. What he found was that not one of those States that voted on that Constitutional Amendment had properly ratified the Amendment. Well, regardless of whether they did or not is somewhat immaterial for this writing. The fact that it is against the laws of the Creator is all that counts. But what is interesting is the date in which it supposedly became law. 1913. This was right in the "hey-day" of the great C.I. Scofield. This was when Scofield really got "puffed" in his attempt to change the preaching concerning the Gospel of the Kingdom. Any connection? You be the judge.

In Malachi 3, God begins His final declaration on the city and people of Jerusalem and Judah in that the day would come that he would completely wipe them off the face of the earth. Detail is given in my first book, The Religion of the New World Order as to the significance of this passage as it relates to the establishment of the Kingdom in A.D. 70 But something else is interesting in this chapter. God tells them why He was going to come to them in judgement. In verse 5 he says:

And I will come near to you to judgement; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the false swearers, AND AGAINST THOSE

THAT OPPRESS THE HIRELING IN HIS WAGES.....

God said again...YOU TAXED LABOR! I HATE IT! YOU ARE GOING TO BE DESTROYED BECAUSE OF IT! I am amazed again at this one. How could this be so completely overlooked? Especially with it being so close to verse eight. (You know, the verse about tithing.)

In the New Testament, Paul states twice that Labor is not to be taxed. He even relates it back to the Old Testament where God even forbade working an animal without letting the animal enjoy the good of his labor. I Timothy 5:18 and I Corinthians 9:9 are the references.

James 5 brings us to another interesting note on labor taxes. In verse 4, James has instructed the Jews that the fulfillment of Malachi's prophecy was getting ready to happen to that generation that he (James) was writing to. In verse one James tells them that they should go and howl for the miseries that were getting ready to come upon them. He tells them that the riches that they accumulated were cankered and rusted and that they would be a witness against them. In verse 4 he tells them:

Behold, (there's that word again) the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and the cries of them that have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

Why the word Behold again? Because God has told them time after time after time. But they keep doing it. I'm sure that they were working within the system to bring about change, but I guess they just couldn't get the job done. Hardly. GOD DESPISES TAXING LABOR. If you contract a man to work in your field, and you tell him that you will pay him 2 ounces of silver per hour and if he works 10 hours — THEN PAY HIM 20 OUNCES OF SILVER. You don't pay him 8 ounces and then give the rest away for social security, federal, state, local, medicare, national health care, baby-sitting, workman's compensation (or nonworkman's compensation), rainy day, cloudy day, wrong time of the month day, save the butterfly day...etc., etc. PAY THE MAN WHAT YOU OWE HIM!

I know that they will threaten you with jail if you don't participate in this grand scheme of theft. I know that they will threaten you with stealing your property if you don't abide by their kingdom's rules. THAT'S WHY CHRIST THE KING SAID BUT FEAR NOT THEM WHICH KILL THE BODY, BUT WHICH ARE NOT ABLE TO KILL THE SOUL: BUT RATHER FEAR HIM WHO IS ABLE TO DESTROY BOTH THE SOUL AND BODY IN HELL. Now who said that? Some Pharisee trying to get you to conform to a bunch of non-issues? No, those are the words of CHRIST THE KING! The only KING. No SOVEREIGNS BUT CHRIST!!! Not, no other sovereigns, BUT NO SOVEREIGNS BUT CHRIST. There are no other sovereigns for the believer. (Thou shalt have no other gods - sovereigns before me!) All of the governments of the world are non-governments. THERE IS

NO KING BUT JESUS!

Back to James! There are some very valuable bits of information in the James 5:4 verse. James tells them that the cries of the labourers have reached the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. A simple word study of the word Sabaoth tells you that the word means the military epithet of God. Taxing labor makes God so mad that He wants to go to war. God DESPISES A TAX ON LABOR.

So what can we do? Conformity to His Kingdom appears to be non-conformity to the non-kingdoms of this world. Then so be it. We must obey God rather than man. Well, shouldn't we work within the system to change the system? The system is PERFECT! The system needs no changing! For the Christian, the only recognizable system is THE KING'S! Conformity to His Kingdom and His ways is what it is about. "But I love this country, and I want it to come back to God." Friend, when you come into the Kingdom of Christ, you become a stranger and a pilgrim in this world. You have no country. You have no nation. We identify with the faith of Abraham of whom it was said in Hebrews 11:13-16:

These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country. And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

The non-governments of this world have officially declared war on the Kingdom of Christ. They have attacked it politically and spiritually. Does this mean that we, as citizens of the Kingdom of Heaven are bound to a life of misery here on this earth? I do not believe so. I believe that God is looking for someone to use to stand against the non-governments, to bring down their strongholds and to cast down their vain imaginations. Sadly, we have bought this Scofield idea that all we should do is go to church and pray about it. Then some day when the king returns, he will set things straight.

Do you remember the story of Hananiah, Mishrael, and Azariah? You may not because organized religion has not identified a problem that those three boys had as it relates to today. We know those three boys more recognizably by their Babylonian names, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. The significant part of what I just said is that the King of Babylon, Nebuchadnezzar, changed those boys names. Just like Social Security did to you when your mom and dad signed you up. My birth name given to me by my parents was "Xxxxx Yyyyy Zzzzzz.". When my mom signed me up, (while I was underaged), the government that I was enlisted with changed my name to XXXXXX Y.

KINGDOM LIVING

ZZZZZZ. That is not my name. My name is Xxxxx Yyyyy Zzzzzz. This was just recently brought to my attention. I never realized the significance until I got a letter from that "government" looking for XXXXXX Y. ZZZZZZ. Anyway, Hananiah, Mishrael, and Azariah have given one of the clearest examples in all of the Bible as to how the followers of His Kingdom should respond to the non-governments of the world. Nebuchadnezzar had decided to pass a law that would require Hananiah, Mishrael, and Azariah to jeopardize their conformity to the Kingdom of God. What was their response? They said NO. We will not conform to your laws as they will cause us to be disobedient to our King. What happened next? You know the story; the entire Babylonian system headed by Nebuchadnezzar was brought down. It ended with Nebuchadnezzar lifting up his voice to heaven saying:

(Daniel 4:34-37) I, Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth forever, whose dominion is an everlasting kingdom, and his kingdom is from generation to generation: And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counselors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me. Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgement: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

Did this happen because Hananiah, Mishrael, and Azariah worked within the system to bring about a change? Absolutely not! They said WE WILL NOT BOW DOWN! Whether or not OUR KING delivers us from your punishment, WE WILL NOT BOW! They didn't bow; He delivered; and His Kingdom was exalted! What an example. This is classic obedience to Matthew 10:28 AND IT HAD NOT EVEN BEEN WRITTEN YET. I submit to you that it had been written before. I believe that it was written on the heart of Adam in the day of Creation — just as it is written on your heart today. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. HALLELUJAH!!! BLESS GOD! Thank you for your wonderful verses of Scripture that give strength to the soul and courage to the weak! Praise be unto God for His wonderful dealings with men! He is our Strength! He is our Rock! He is our Salvation, in Him will we put our trust! Thanks be unto God for the encouragement and refuge that we find in His blessed words. Truly His words sustain us and are more valuable than gold and more precious than even our necessary food!

KINGDOM LIVING

Well, as if we could handle any more encouragement at this point, let's look at a few New Testament passages. In Acts 5, we find a very popular passage of Scripture concerning the Apostles conformity to the Kingdom. Of course their conformity to the Kingdom appeared to be non-conformity to the non-governments of the world. In this chapter, Peter and the others had just been released from jail on their own recognizance. They had been jailed because they had been preaching in the name of Jesus. The Scriptures say after they had been threatened, they were released. Now they had been straightly commanded not to preach the doctrine of Christ. What was the doctrine of Christ? This has been duly talked about already in this book — they were preaching the Kingship of Christ! They were preaching that GOD HATH MADE THIS SAME JESUS WHOM YE HAVE CRUCIFIED, BOTH LORD AND CHRIST! Peter and John's first response to the threatenings was, "Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye." Then in chapter 5 when they got arrested again, their response was, "We ought to obey God rather than men." Their conformity to the Kingdom of Christ appeared to be non-conformity to the non-governments of the world.

I'm waiting any minute for someone to bring to me the lost writings of the Apostles. I'm certain that when they do, they are probably going to contain the following scenes. Rather than Peter and John conforming to the Kingdom of Christ by their actions, we are going to find them holding rallies asking the people to write their Congressmen and tell them that they better start being better boys and girls or we're going to get tough! Dog gone it, we've had enough and we're not going to vote for you guys. Hey, good idea, let's get rid of Bush and those mean ole Republicans and let's try Clinton and the Democrats for a while. Isn't this little scenario a little sickening? If you call Christ King, then act like it regardless of who calls themselves the authority of non-government!

Who is your Christ? Who is your King? Here's who mine is! Look at Colossians 2:6-15.

As ye have therefore received Christ the Lord, so walk ye in him: Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. AND YE ARE COMPLETE IN HIM, WHICH IS THE HEAD OF ALL PRINCIPALITY AND POWER: in whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ: Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; AND HAVING SPOILED PRINCIPALITIES AND POWERS, HE MADE A SHEW OF THEM OPENLY, TRIUMPHING OVER THEM IN IT.

This is who THE KING is! He is the One who has triumphed over all of the non-governments of the world. He is the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. There is NONE ELSE BESIDE HIM. With all of this in mind, go back and look at I Corinthians 15 again where you will find that He has put all things under His feet. He has subdued ALL THINGS and has put ALL THINGS UNDER HIM. Can you not see the power in the truth that Christ IS KING NOW!?! What this does is give people the authority and right to live the way He wants them to. Living in His Kingdom is a far superior way than what the non-kingdoms of the world offer. He said that He came to give life, and to give it more abundantly. More abundantly than what? Than the non-kingdoms and systems of this world. Just think of how much better off you would be when you get old. The world system, headed by Hillary Clinton's ONE WORLD HEALTH CARE PLAN has euthanasia planned for you if you live in their kingdom! Christ's Kingdom has a peaceful and blessed time surrounded by your beloved children and grandchildren — and great grandchildren, perhaps. Instructing your children in the ways of the King will ensure that when you are old, you will continue to have life more abundantly in the Kingdom of Christ. The systems and non-governments of this world offer nursing homes and retirement villages. Have you ever been in one of those places?

Recently, my wife told her grandparents how this was going to be a realization in our lives someday. She received skepticism from her grandparents. "Children don't do that these days," they said. Well why don't they? I submit to you it is because churches have made this a "non-issue." Stepping out of Corban and into the Kingdom of Christ is Phariseeism, they say. Friends, as I read my Bible, the unpardonable sin is attributing the work of God, to the works of darkness. We need to be so very careful when we say that certain things in the Scripture are "non-issues," simply because we lack discernment and understanding.

There are a few more "non-issues" that I am going to relate to you in this book. I cannot tell you how important it is that I get you to understand that I am talking about conformity to Christ and His Kingdom. I am not talking about being anti-non-government. I am not talking about overthrowing non-government. I am talking about conformity to Christ's Kingdom and His righteousness. If conformity to His Kingdom appears to be non-conformity to the non-government, then so be it. I am going to show you a few more differences between Kingdom living and living in the system.

Marriage.

Recently we had a couple in our home for a visit. When they began inquiring of us concerning

KINGDOM LIVING

Kingdom living, I started going through a few simple examples to try and help them get a feel for what I was talking about. They had knowledge of the Scriptures which was helpful in getting them to see where I was coming from. I began by asking them if marriage was a partnership. I ask you, "Is marriage a partnership?" I knew the answer that I was going to get before they even gave it. And like 99.9% of everyone else in this society, your answer was probably the same as theirs. They said, "Yes, marriage was a partnership." According to the non-government and the systems of this world, marriage is a partnership. But what about in the Kingdom? Marriage is absolutely NOT A PARTNERSHIP. Ephesians 5:22 states very plainly that the wife is to be subject to her own husband as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church; and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. How is this a partnership? The state has made marriage a partnership in its efforts to destroy the family. When you go and get a marriage license, you are creating, "legally," a limited partnership with 1/3 interest the husband, 1/3 interest the wife, and the controlling interest the state. Now no one held a gun to your head and made you do this. You did it voluntarily. You chose to live in accordance with the system's rules of marriage. The system's rules of marriage say that the wife is 50% responsible for the finances of the family. This is in total violation of

KINGDOM LIVING

Kingdom living. Where is the wife supposed to be as far as work is concerned? Titus 2:2 says that women are to teach the young women to be sober, to love their own husbands, to love their children, to be discreet, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. This is Kingdom living.

While listening to the radio the other day, I heard a Baptist preacher say something that caught my attention. He said stay tuned because I am going to give you the solution for unemployment, divorce, etc. I eagerly awaited his answer. He said, "Women, go home." That was great! He hit the nail right on the head. I applauded his efforts — until he opened his mouth again. He said that there were of course, two reasons for a woman to work outside the home. One, was for the nursing profession. (Of course, his wife is a working nurse). The other reason was for teaching. (Of course, his "church" runs a "christian" school and if you have women doing the teaching, then you can rip them off for a lot less of a "salary" than if you had only men doing the teaching).

This marriage license thing is really interesting. Living in the Kingdom of Christ, a marriage license is not even something that is discussed. Black's Law Dictionary, which is the standard for the non-government courts and attorneys states that a license is permission by competent authority to do an act which otherwise without, (in other words, if you didn't have the license) would be illegal, a trespass, or a tort. So a license is non-government permission to do something that is wrong. Is marriage wrong? Didn't the King put in His law book that MARRIAGE WAS HONOURABLE? He did say that. There is nothing wrong with marriage. It is a wonderful picture of Christ and His love for the church. Why in the world would you get a license to get married?

Even though it doesn't apply to me in any shape or form, I looked up the definition for marriage license in Black's Law Dictionary. It said, permission to intermarry. I then looked up intermarry. It said miscegenation. I then looked up miscegenation. According to their own law, the only people required by their law to get a marriage license, or permission to marry, were people that were marrying between races. Their own law dictionary says that miscegenation is a marriage between different races, such as a White person and a Negro. That's what their law says.

According to their own law, they are saying that only people who intend to do something wrong, are people that need a license. Now, I am not going to get into interracial marriages in this book, but I do want to say that Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord because God said that Noah was the only one left on the earth that had not mixed the races. It's there for you to see for yourself. I'm not going to spoon-feed that one. It says that Noah was perfect in his generations.

With that in mind, I do want to say one final thing about this, if indeed it is wrong to mix the races in the eyes of God, then it is a complete abomination for a non-government to grant license to disobey God's law. This is being licentious. God despises licentiousness, which simply means using license. Licentiousness means the same as lasciviousness found in Gal. 5:19 and other places.

So why do the non-governments of the world try and tell people to get a marriage license? The answer is simple. Control. They claim "legal" say-so in the affairs of your "marriage" and you gave it to them voluntarily. What once was between a man a woman and God, has now been replaced with man, woman and the state. It is not adultery to have a three-party relationship with God — but it is unquestionably adultery, if not idolatry, to have a three-party relationship between a man, a woman, and the state. When Jeremiah went around saying that the whole nation committed adultery, what was he saying? Did he really mean that every single person in Israel had committed adultery? Well, anything is possible. But it is almost more realistic to say that Jeremiah was speaking on a spiritual plane, somewhat like that of today. Ninety-nine point nine percent of all "married" people in this country have marriage licenses. That is a three-party marriage in which God is not a part of. It is a marriage between the man, the woman, and the state. It is spiritual adultery.

This is an issue because the KING of KINGS does not require a license to marry. Having a marriage license given by the non-governments of this world system is conformity to the system and non-conformity to the true Kingdom of Christ.

So what's the answer? It's really pretty simple. You divorce the state. You do not divorce your spouse because THE KING hates divorce when it involves people. But divorcing the state is obedience to THE KING. If you do this, you must be careful to do the paperwork in a way that completely removes the state from any future jurisdiction over your family. You must seek the counsel of someone who knows and understands this better than me. I can't help much with that. I don't have a marriage license.

I see this marriage issue as being one that should be easily understood as it relates to Kingdom living. In the society of today, what is the enticement for people to get the marriage license? Is it not for tax reasons? Isn't it so that you can have deductions on your taxes? See, again, this non-government system rewards you for living contrary to the way the King of Kings wants you to live.

What I am trying to bring out in this section of my book is that people who call Christ King and who claim to be a part of His Kingdom need to realize that this involves every aspect of life. Entangling yourself with the non-governments of this world is parallel to the days when the Israelites told Samuel to tell God that they wanted a "king" just like everyone else. But God said, "No, I am the only King that you need." But the people told Samuel

GIVE US A KING. God then told Samuel to tell them what it was going to be like when they got their "king." I Samuel 8:11-18 —

And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots. And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of chariots. And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers. And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants. And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants. And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to work. He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants. And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the Lord will not hear you.

Wow!!! So what did these people do? Did they say, "Hey, we're getting ready to make the biggest mistake in the history of mankind! We better change our minds!!??" No they didn't. They said, "Nay, but we will have a king over us; that we also may be like all the nations."

KINGDOM LIVING

Just who was it that told you that you were required to have a marriage license? And just exactly what does this have to do with the Israelites wanting a king? It has everything to do with everything. The simple fact is this. No one has required you to get a marriage license. No one has required you to take a "king." You/we did it voluntarily. The marriage license is registered with the Department of Trade and Commerce. What does that mean to you? Hopefully you should be able to see that it means that the "kings of the non-governments" of this world think you are nothing more than cattle! AND WE DID THIS VOLUNTARILY!

A few years ago a man that I knew was having marital problems and it got so bad that his wife actually filed for divorce. Upon being stunned by the reality of "no-fault" divorce he came upon the revelation that the courts had violated his "religious liberty" in granting the divorce even though he didn't want it. He told me that he was going to sue the government because the Bible says, Whatsoever therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. And since man had "put asunder" he was going to sue for religious persecution. The simple, but rude fact of this story is this: THE STATE PUT THE MARRIAGE TOGETHER AND THE STATE CAN TAKE IT APART WHENEVER IT WANTS AND HOWEVER IT WANTS. God is not even in the picture and we kicked him out voluntarily!

We asked for the "king" and we got it! No one required it of us — we prostituted ourselves for a pittance called a tax deduction. We should be so happy to have such a terrible king that Samuel promised — he only stole 10%. Well, Samuel also told those Israelites that their new king would take their children away, and take their lands away. Does any of this sound even remotely familiar? Friends, God is looking for people who are not ashamed to call Him King. He is looking for a people who desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

Do I need to bring up the next obvious thing that we do to conform to the systems of the world? When a man and a woman live together (even with a marriage license) generally something unique and wonderful happens — a child is born. Now the Scriptures tell us plainly that children are an heritage of the Lord. Through many different Biblical illustrations we see that God gives people children for the express purpose of raising them to walk according to His ways. Some have even said that the children are only "on loan" from God to the parents. To a certain extent I can agree with this thinking. But what happens when the parents — who are already property of the state through the marriage license — get their children birth certificates. Legally, the parents give away, VOLUNTARILY, their status as the sole provider, protector, and guide to the state. The child immediately is placed under the jurisdiction of the State Child Welfare Services and at that point the legal rights of the parents are removed from their rightful God-given place and transferred to the State. This is not something that was forced upon anyone. Out of their desire to have a "king" like everyone else, they did this voluntarily. First, the parents voluntarily got the marriage license, then they voluntarily got the birth certificate. You may not have known what you were doing, but I can most certainly guarantee you that the "kings" of the non-governments of this world knew what they were doing. This is why Christ told His disciples in a parable that the "children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light." "No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life." Making contracts with foreign kings (I mean any other king than the King of Kings) is truly a rejection of the King of Kings.

Here in the land that they call Indiana, there is a state sponsored television commercial that constantly refers to the children who live in this land as "our little Hoosiers." Could this possibly be correct? Does the state have children that belong to it? Well, say what you want. Say that even though you have the marriage license and the birth certificates that it doesn't matter because you know that Christ is really your King. Well, all I can say then is, "Just wait and see." There are going to be many more things happening in the way of non-government intervention in which one day you will be forced to be in a situation where you have to tell these non-governments to get out of your family. Do you think that they are going to just put their tails between their legs and go home because you really knew all along that all of the entanglements that you

VOLUNTARILY made with them didn't really mean anything? I honestly hope that that would be the case. But just remember what God told Samuel to tell those people back in I Samuel 8. In verse 18 Samuel pleads with them saying: And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye have chosen you; and the LORD will not hear you in that day.

Well, friends, I for one, am not willing to take that chance. I would much rather conform to His Kingdom, have no entanglements and contracts with the non-governments of this world; and then when they come looking for trouble, I do not want to be in the same situation that Samuel told those Israelites that they would be in. That is, AND THE LORD WILL NOT HEAR YOU IN THAT DAY. Is that a risk that you are willing to take?

Are you beginning to get the picture about this Kingdom living? Who is your King? Is your King the King now? Or is he a "king to come?" It makes all the difference in the world.

Before I go on to a few other points, I would like to remind you of a certain New Testament passage of Scripture concerning Kingdom living. The other day I was in a conversation with a man who had just finished reading my first book, The Religion of the New World Order. He made an interesting comment to me about "government." He was telling me that "government" was a necessity. "Government" was essentially to be the codified Old Testament laws and statutes and that nations had to have them in order to exist. Without going into much detail I quoted a few Scriptures to him. One of them is from Galatians 5. To some people it is going to seem to them that I am talking about some sort of lawless society. But the fact is, that is very far from the truth of what I am trying to get across. The people that live under the non-governments of the world, I suppose, do need some form of government. I guess they need someone to punish them when they disobey their king. If they steal from their neighbor or even kill their neighbor, I guess they need some form of government to try and correct that type of behavior. But for the true believer who is in the Kingdom of Christ and living in the Spirit, this is essentially a "non-issue."

Look at Galatians 5:22 —

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

This is really pretty simple. If you are walking in the Kingdom of Christ and being led by the Spirit, you are living a life in which no laws are violated or broken. Here's a major place where Scofield's schemes are brought into the attack on the true Kingdom of Christ. Here is where I believe the most important part of Spiritual warfare has taken place.

Christ said in Matthew 6:33 —

Seek ye FIRST the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

Christ told His followers to SEEK THE KINGDOM FIRST. Before you do anything — SEEK THE KINGDOM. He said DO THIS FIRST. But Scofield and the rest of them have convinced the people of this world today that Christ's Kingdom is somewhere in the future. This effectively nullifies the entire sum of the Scriptures and the teachings of Christ.

This brings me back to where the Baptist preacher told me years ago that my problem was that I believed in Lordship salvation. Well, yes, I do believe in Lordship salvation! For whosoever shall call upon the name of the LORD shall be saved. I do not however, believe that someone has to be a theologian in order to be saved. But I most certainly believe that someone must know something about Christ and His Kingdom in order to begin a search for it!

The thought dawned on me a few years ago that while I was raised in the organized church, I was taught all about the Old Testament historical stories. I knew the story of Creation. I knew the story of Joseph. I was told the story of David and Goliath. And of course, I was told the story about Jonah and the whale, big fish, sea monster, or whatever else they want to spend their time fighting over. (The other day I heard someone say that it was a Russian submarine). So I had some knowledge of the Old Testament Scriptures. Then the New Testament that I was taught was of course, Christ's birth (on December 25th), how he turned the water into Welch's Grape Juice (unsweetened), how he fed the five thousand, and how he raised Lazarus from the dead. I was also taught how that He was crucified, rose again, and ascended into Heaven. The rest of my upbringing in the organized church dealt with the Rapture, 666 the mark of the Beast, Satan, The Great Tribulation, and the 1,000 Year Millennial Reign of Christ on this Earth — and how that if I was good, I'd rule and reign over big cities, but if I was bad; I'd probably end up being a garbage collector.

What dawned on me was this: I was taught a lot of OT stuff and a lot of futuristic stuff, but I was taught very little of the teachings of Christ.

I realized that Christ had something to say about virtually every single issue of life. He had opinions on life and THOSE OPINIONS OF HIS WERE WHAT HE INTENDED FOR HIS DISCIPLES TO WALK IN. He told His disciples to pray like this: THY KINGDOM COME, THY WILL BE DONE, IN EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN. Well, His Kingdom came and it is now our responsibility to live according to His will on this earth! That is what we are here for. To walk in His ways. To be a light to a blind world. To proclaim that He is King — not by our speech — but by our walk. In Romans 12:2 the Scripture says: And be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God. Well, how do you do that? By walking in the Light as He is in the Light. Things are proven by action — not by words. If He is King, then walk like it.

I submit to you that the reason that men don't walk like it is because the religious leaders of yesterday and today have taken away the key of knowledge. They have nullified the words of Christ concerning seeking first His Kingdom and His righteousness and they have substituted it with a fleshly future kingdom that is based on a lie. Men don't seek His Kingdom today because the preachers in the world have convinced them that it is a futile thing to do. After all, righteousness, which is simply right doing, is the ethical keyword of the age to come.

Today, in America in particular, everyone is a "Christian." Even the "jews" are christians. The "jews" will gladly stand up and hail that America was founded on the judeo-christian ethic. But Christ said that because straight is the gate and narrow is the way, few there be that find it. But everyone's a christian. So here again, the words of Christ are nullified. His own words say that there is a seeking of the Kingdom involved in the matter. Scofield and his people have eliminated the necessity of "seeking," for they have readily and completely identified Christ's Kingdom as a future, political, social, Israelitish, earthly kingdom.

Would to God that everyone in America was a "christian." But the simple fact is, that America has been so attacked and bombarded with a pseudo-gospel, that the people in this country have not even had the glorious gospel of the Kingdom of Christ presented to them.

One of the next issues that I would like to present to you is the truth behind the "church" in America. I guess a more obvious place to start this section would have been at the beginning of the issues section. But it really isn't going to make much difference because if you have stayed with me this far, then a little thing like talking about the incorporated church after we talk about social security, or vice versa is pretty trivial.

The Incorporated "Church."

About a year or so ago I was talking to a friend out east about the "corporate church." I was trying to get him to understand that I was talking about corporations as they relate to state governments. He thought that I was talking about corporation" as in, body of believers. Nothing could be more misunderstood. I was trying to get this man to see the wickedness and total disregard of the Scriptures of "incorporating the church." To make sure that there is no further misunderstanding I am talking about what happens when a group of people get together and "start" a new church. As I was taught in "bible" college, when you get a few people together and decide to begin a new assembly, you go and find you an attorney who can 'draw' up the necessary paper work so that you can have a legally recognized "church." So, the "pastor" of this new assembly of people goes down on Monday morning to the local attorney and has him do the necessary paperwork to create a non-profit ecclesiastical corporation. Included in this "paperwork" are the new church by-laws, which are 'rules of procedure.' This creates a church board which consists of a president, secretary, and treasurer, as well as trustees. The Scriptures plainly lay out the different "offices" in the church. Can you find anywhere in there that it talks about a "President of the Corporation" or the "Secretary or Treasurer?" How about the Board of Trustees? Are those offices listed in the Scriptures somewhere? No, they're not! In fact, the only "board" that is mentioned is the one that Paul floated to shore on after his shipwreck!

So, once this is done, the lawyer tells the "pastor" to go back and get a church vote on this "necessary paperwork." So, he goes back, tells the people to vote yes, and away we go. Before this fledgling new assembly of believers has even got their feet wet, they have tossed Christ out from their midst and they have placed themselves in the exact same place that the Israelites did when they told Samuel they wanted a "king" like everyone else! Now keep in mind that all the while that they have done this, the pastor has kept preaching — "Christ is King! Christ is the Head of this Church! We recognize that Christ is over all things to His church!"

Well, all of that sounds good until everyone begins shaking their heads at each other wondering why their churches are dead! They wonder why their church is powerless. They preach that the "gates of hell will not prevail over Christ's church" yet, the church in America is so weak and powerless, that it has become a shame and disgrace to the people of the world. Rather than begin to identify this as some foundational problem, the "pastors" of these government corporations pass the mocking off as the fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

When the world laughs at the ineptness and powerlessness of the church, the "pastors" of these places take comfort and convince their followers to take comfort, in that, we must be doing something right to have this happening to us! What a horrible misrepresentation of the truth.

Recently a friend of mine sent me a newsletter from some guy somewhere who was doing nothing but propagating destruction in the name of Christ. His newsletter was called a "bible prophecy fulfillment watch." He had several pages attributed to the supposed fulfillment of 666, the mark of the beast. He showed all different kinds of receipts and government documents showing that the world is preparing its system of 666, the mark of the beast, for full implementation. Were this newsletter not so disheartening, it would have been nothing less than comical. My friend wrote a note to me on the bottom of the page that said, "Our only hope of winning is that the conspirators laugh themselves to death!" What an awesome truth. The New World One World conspirators use these "corporate"

"churches" to their advantage in the same way that a puppeteer controls his puppets.

I am going to discuss the corporate "church" issue in a little different way. What follows is a letter that I wrote to a man who told me that the "corporate church" in America has added "cultural value" to this society and that it should be protected all costs. I am not going to publish this man's name out of respect for him.

Dear Sir

I feel compelled to send you this letter as a result of our phone conversation the other evening. I simply want to give you my feelings concerning some of the things that we talked about. The first issue that I would like to address is your idea that the "church" of America has added "cultural value" to our country and thus it would be a terrible thing to have them shut down. I want to tell you that the only thing that the "church" in America has added in the years since 1913 has been nothing but detriment. There is no truth to be found in the state-owned and operated churches in this country. They have been successfully infiltrated with state purchased "pastors" who have been indoctrinated with the religion of the New World Order. The "educations" of these so-called pastors has been subsidized and paid for by government money via student loans, VA paid schooling, and government grants. Why would the U.S. government so readily support (with paper dollars) the efforts of individuals to obtain religious education when everyone in government is so adamant about this "separation of church and state" malarky? The reason is simple. They are not paying for religious education. They are paying for the use of these men's future positions, in that, when they obtain positions of "leadership" inside these so-called "churches," they will repay their benefactors with the brainwashing of their followers. This brainwashing consists in the following areas:

- That men have the authority from God to set up their own "governments" and make their own "laws."
- The attitude that no matter what "gov't" does, the people must follow.
- All taxes are biblical, therefore, they must be paid.
- Social Security and its number is not discussed in the Scriptures, therefore, we must comply.
- There is nothing wrong with the Social Security number.
- Insurance is the Law!
- All law is good law! Obey the laws of the land. (They actually convince people that this phrase is in the Bible).
- Marriage is a civil contract that falls under the jurisdiction of "gov't."
- There is nothing wrong with paper money, banking, and interest (usury).
- All of God's law was done away with at the cross.
- The Jews in Palestine are God's chosen people.

KINGDOM LIVING

All of this basically translates into the belief by the people that fill the pews of the "churches" in America that Government is God. Because of this teaching that grace has eliminated all of man's responsibility to the law word of God, what has happened is that the people in the "churches" have become antinomians.

The problem with this is that they have done exactly what the Pharisees indoctrination did 2,000 years ago when the Jews cried out, WE HAVE NO KING BUT CAESAR. They threw out God's law and his (Christ's) teachings, in favor of man's teachings and traditions. (See Mark Chapter 7 to see the parallel between then and now, in regards to Social Security).

I am searching for some redeeming value to these "church buildings", yet, each time I look, I am further and further repulsed. "Christian television" is so evil it makes me want to throw up every time I see one of those people on there. Their women look like prostitutes. The men look like queers. Their doctrines and teachings on the Scripture are so far gone - they cannot be born again. John says very plainly that if we say we have light and walk in darkness we lie and do not the truth. There is no fellowship with Christ while walking in darkness. In peddling their wares and making merchandise of their followers, they continue to destroy this country by the constant use of Master Card, VISA, Discover Cards and the like. Master Card's own advertising slogan is "SO WORLDLY SO WELCOME." Well, that sums it up. That is very fitting for this so-called "church" in America and its "cultural value." The very foundation of these so-called "churches" should so obviously be the family. Yet the divorce rate inside the "church" is nearly the same as it is with the "unchurched." By the way, is marriage a "partnership?" The great family men of the "church" in America would say so. Dobson would answer yes before I even finished the question. The teaching that marriage is a "partnership" is the official position of the state. It is not, however, the official position of the Lord Jesus. Ephesians tells us plainly that the "husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church." This is by no means a partnership. This brainwashing has eroded the family in that people now believe that the woman is 50% responsible for the income and support of the family. I challenge you to find me any "church" in America that teaches marriage Scripturally. Find me a "church" where it is taught that God does not condone women working outside the home. The Scripture says that women are to be "keepers at home." We have "churches" in this country that not only advocate women working outside the home, they even make it profitable by creating "state-licensed, certified day cares" to baby-sit the children so that it will be easier for the woman to work outside the home. If the "church" was interested in adding "cultural value" to this country, then it would start by teaching what God's word says about the family. Instead, it once again adds to the decline of this country by helping women get out of the house.

KINGDOM LIVING

I know that there are pockets of "churches" out there that would give lip service to a woman being the keeper at home, etc. But if they truly believe it, they still deny it by teaching that it's okay to have a marriage license issued by the state prior to being "married." They can give lip service to Ephesians Chapter 5, but when a marriage license is issued by the state, it creates legally, a limited partnership. This limited partnership also creates spiritual adultery, in that, a third party is added to the marriage. The marriage license creates a limited partnership with 1/3 the husband, 1/3 the wife, and the controlling interest the state which issues the license. Marriage is an ordinance of God's not the state's. Christ said, Whatsoever therefore God joins together, let not man put asunder. Well, the simple fact is, since 1848 in this country, God has stopped joining and man has taken it over, thus making it just as easy for man to put it asunder as it did to join it.

You spoke of the humanist trying to do away with the steeple. I don't buy that. The steeple is the sign of the humanist. Humanists are "church going" people.

You very seldom see a self-avowed "humanist" that does not attend the "church of his choice." The history of the steeple is rich with the religion of Freemasonry. It was the masons (bricklayers) that built the buildings that house these so-called "churches." The steeple is their sign. What you are doing by saying that it really means something *else, is exactly what the masons want. I quote for you from Morals and Dogma, the official manual of the 33rd Degree Mason (page 818-819):*

[It is absurd to suppose that men of intellect adored a monstrous idol called Baphomet, or recognized Mahomet as an inspired prophet. Their symbolism, invented ages before, to conceal what was dangerous to avow, was of course misunderstood by those who were not adepts, and to their enemies seemed to be pantheistic. The calf of gold, made by Aaron for the Israelites, was but one of the oxen under the laver of bronze, and the Karobim on the Propitiatory, misunderstood. The symbols of the wise always become the idols of the ignorant multitude. What the Chiefs of the Order really believed and taught, is indicated to the adepts by the hints contained in the high Degrees of Free Masonry, and by the symbols which only the Adepts understand. [The Blue Degrees are but the outer court or portico of the Temple. Part of the symbols are displayed there to the Initiate, but he is intentionally misled by false interpretations. It is not intended that he shall understand them; but it is intended that he shall imagine he understands them. Their true explication is reserved for the Adepts, the Princes of Masonry. The whole body of the Royal and Sacerdotal Art was hidden so carefully, centuries since, in the High Degrees, as that it is even yet impossible to solve many of the enigmas which they contain. It is well enough for the mass of those called Masons, to imagine that all is contained in the Blue Degrees; and whoso attempts to undeceive them will labor in vain, and without any true reward violate his obligations as an Adept.

The same could be said about trying to undeceive the members of the "church" of this country. The "church" of this country operates completely outside the realm of Scripture for the practical applications of daily life. The extent of "christianity" in the "churches" in America is: Don't drink, don't smoke, don't cuss, don't commit adultery, and don't go to movies. The humanist is concerned with outward appearances. The humanist is concerned with "making it through life" without any regard to what God says about daily living. That is why the steeple is very appropriate for these facilities. They teach a government approved religion. It is interesting to note that the normal daily lives of those who call themselves "Christians" and those who call themselves "humanists" is basically the same. They are born in the same hospitals, they both receive birth certificates, they both have marriage licenses, they both use banks, they both go into debt, they both have insurance policies, they both participate in schemes that tax labor, they both participate in social security, they both have social security numbers, they both attend government indoctrination schools, they do everything the same. The only thing they do differently is talk! They deny the Lord Jesus of the New Testament in favor of the "coming Jewish Messiah."

Can you honestly tell me that you believe that someone can actually be born again, regenerated, and in the kingdom of Christ and still teach and preach that the reestablishing of temple sacrifices and the rebuilding of the Jewish temple is part of God's complete plan for the redemption of man? This is absolute blasphemy. You know very well that God's plan for the redemption of mankind was completed 2,000 (years) ago by the Lord Jesus Christ that lived and walked on this earth AT THAT TIME. To say that He is coming again to this earth to finish something is to deny Him and what He did while He was here. The times of man's ignorance are over with. The Scripture teaches plainly that ignorance is no longer an excuse. While we are so concerned with not being "judgemental," we are truly adding to the problem by giving these people further excuses for staying ignorant.

I am not ashamed to say that the Bible is clear on who belongs to Christ and who doesn't. I didn't write the book, but I certainly can read it. For instance, the Lord Jesus himself said in Revelation 3 that those that call themselves Jews and are not, are of the synagogue of Satan. According to the Scripture, who is a Jew? Is it an issue of the flesh? Or is it, And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise? What then should be said about people who continually teach others that certain fleshly things make someone God's chosen people? This whole teaching of the Jews of Palestine being God's chosen people is the major part of Scofield's garbage and is what this whole futuristic teaching of the Bible centers around.

KINGDOM LIVING

This teaching that spews forth from the "churches" of this country is part of a plan by Jewish conspirators called British Israelites that have had as their goal for centuries, one-world government. They have created this monstrous beast of organized religion for its own use and it has worked beautifully. They have used man's ignorance of the Scripture to dupe him into accepting their false religion. The religions of the world have now worked effectively, like busy bees, into bringing about one-world government. Of course, they think that the coming world government will be ruled by Christ. But just like the stupid masons, they have been duped. You and I both know that Christ is not going to rule this world, but yet, just try to convince one of these people that there will be no "millennium." They will do everything but come to blows with you.

This is a "church" that stands behind military intervention and the deaths of thousands if not millions of people worldwide, who are no doubt completely innocent of anything other than not falling for this new world order garbage.

The only thing that is keeping the complete and utter demise of this country from falling completely under U.N. authority are individuals like Hussein, Khadafy, Arafat and others who will not join this world alliance. Why do you think Hussein told Bush that if he bombed Iraq, he would then bomb Israel? Rest assured that the U. N. would consider it far more harmful for Iraq to bomb Israel than it would for Iraq to bomb Kuwait. The issue is that Hussein and the others are not buying this God's chosen people baloney and they have resisted it since 1948 and they will resist it unto death. In that regard, Hussein has far more Biblical truth than 99% of the "preachers" that occupy the pulpits in this country. Hussein called Bush, Satan. According to Revelation 3, Hussein was right on target.

The "preterists" in this country believe that we are in Christ's kingdom now. What exactly does that mean? If Christ is king, does that mean that we, too, can disregard His teachings for daily living. At least the Scofieldites say that they don't have to live right because Christ is a King to come. That is their excuse. But what about the "kingdom now" people? What excuse do they have for abandoning the life-style that Christ demonstrated? If Christ is King, then we should be having some of the same problems that the early Christians had. For instance, what was going on in Acts 17 when the disciples were accused of "turning the world upside down?" It was said about them that they "all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another King, one Jesus." Of course, we could do what the rest of the organized "church" would do. As Thompson does, he notes in the margin of his reference Bible that these were False Accusations. Does the context of the Scripture anywhere give us an idea that this was a false accusation? I can't find any. But, speaking of false accusations. Look at Luke 23. In verse two, the Scripture says that the multitude arose and led Christ to Pilate and began to accuse him saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King. Once again, Thompson lists these verses under his heading, False Accusations. Tis not so. There is no Biblical context to say that these were false accusations. Compare this now to Luke 3:12-14. The tax collectors came to John the Baptist and asked what they had to do to be saved. His response was that they would have to leave their jobs at the IRS. Well, kind of. He told him that they had to be honest in their tax collection. In verse 14 he told the soldiers that they were to do no violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely. This, too, is listed in Thompson's false accusations section. But, there is a major difference here. If you would simply look up the definition of the word accuse here in verse 14, you will find that the Greek word here means to accuse falsely. So, actually, to say accuse falsely in the verse is somewhat overkill. My point is, though, when God wants us to know about a false accusation, he tells us. We just can't arbitrarily decide what we think is a false accusation and what isn't just because we don't like the things that were said about the Lord Jesus. You can further compare this to Matthew 26 when the Scripture plainly says that false witnesses were gathered against Christ. Here there is a clear distinction.

My wife and I had intentions of coming to the meeting in Philadelphia last month. Probably the biggest reason that I did not make the trip was because when I read the list of speakers, my spirit was dampened and the excitement almost instant-neously removed. I read the biographies of some of the speakers which contained the phrases "licensed to preach," among others. Do you know what the definition of license is? From Black's Law Dictionary: The permission by competent authority to do an act which, otherwise without, would be illegal, a trespass, or a tort. Accepting a license to preach is openly declaring that preaching is illegal, a trespass, or a tort; therefore, permission must be granted to do something that is wrong. The "churches" in this country are ALL state licensed and incorporated by the states in which they operate. I have included a copy of a Supreme Court decision regarding corporations for you to read. While the entire decision needs to be read, what is paramount and basically sums up the decision can be found on page 665 on the right hand side of the page. This is what I tried to talk to you about a while back. I am not talking about "church corporations" as in "corporal, physical, etc.," I'm talking about "church corporations" as they relate to state laws. Note the words in the bottom paragraph, It is presumed to be incorporated for the benefit of the public. It receives certain special privileges and franchises, and holds them subject to the laws of the state and the limitations of its charter. Its powers are limited by law...

There you have the summation of the "church" in America. It is presumed to be incorporated for the benefit of the public. (And it's powers are LIMITED BY LAW...)

KINGDOM LIVING

Is the church (the true church) public? Absolutely not! The true church of the Lord Jesus Christ is as private as you can get. Only those individuals who accept the Lord Jesus Christ into their lives as Lord and Master are in the church.

But what does the state mean? Have you ever heard of court decisions that have been handed down ruling against "churches" in matters such as hiring and firing of workers? For instance, a few years ago a Tulsa "church" was sued in Oklahoma by a queer who was fired from the school staff once it became public knowledge that the man was a queer. The "church" even practiced the biblical teachings on church discipline before it fired the man. But, the man who sued the "church" won the lawsuit and received damages from the "church." Why? Because the "church" was incorporated by the state of Oklahoma and was presumed to be incorporated for the benefit of the public. Official public policy in this country states that homosexuality is an accepted alternate life-style. Therefore, it is illegal to discriminate against someone because of their sexual orientation. Now had this "church" been unincorporated, this would never have even been a case because the courts do not have jurisdiction over unincorporated churches. Evidence this by what happened years ago in Nebraska to Everett Sileven, pastor of Faith Baptist "Church" in Lewisville, Nebraska. Sileven would not take a state license to operate his "church" school. While in the judges chambers, Sileven tried to reason with the judge that the state had no jurisdiction in the matter whatsoever and that the First Amendment to the Constitution guaranteed him that the state could not prohibit the free exercise of religion. Sileven tried to tell the judge that the "church" belonged to Jesus Christ and that was the reason why he could not take a state license for his "church." At that point, the judge pulled out the court documents and read them to Sileven. It said, The State of Nebraska versus Faith Baptist Church, a Nebraska Corporation. Whose "corporation?" Case closed. There is no law that says that a "church" must incorporate. So why do these "churches" incorporate?

It receives certain special privileges and franchises, and holds them subject to the laws of the state and the limitations of its charter.

What are the "special privileges and franchises" that the corporation receives? For the "church" it is tax-deductible gifts and tax-exempt status. As long as the "church" stays out of "politics" (...Its rights to act as a corporation are only preserved to it so long as it obeys the laws of its creation) then it can continue to flourish and prosper from the tax-deductible gifts of its followers. A few years ago, a Baptist college in South Carolina was stripped of its 501(C)3 status by the IRS. Why? Because it would not allow its black and white students to date each other. How could this "church issue" possibly end up in a government squabble? Bob Jones University is a South Carolina corporation and it must act like one and stop discriminating or it will be punished by its creator, the state.

KINGDOM LIVING

Why don't the "churches" in this country tackle this Jew issue? Do you think that they would be stripped of their tax exempt status? How many of these "churches" would continue to exist if their followers were denied the ability to write their gifts off on their "taxes?" Is it because the "church" through their government bought and paid for "pastors" has convinced their followers that the "church" should not get involved in "politics?" Seems to me that the "church" cannot be remotely separated from "politics." "Politics" simply means "the study of policy." Policy is the way of life. It is the manner in which we conduct our daily affairs. It is the determining factor in the way we do business. How can the "church" be separated from "politics?" Once again, the answer is simple. The "politics" of the "church" is relegated to clean speech (no cussing), proper grooming (cleanliness is next to godliness), no movies (although I think even this has been dropped from their agenda), no drinking (that is beer, wine, etc., although they somehow try to convince their followers that Christ turned the water into grape juice — yet they will guzzle such man-made contaminants as Coke, Pepsi, et.al.), you must tithe, you must render unto Caesar, and above all, OBEY THE LAWS OF THE LAND (even though they are completely clueless as to what the law is).

The "church" in this country has nothing but detrimental cultural value in this country. It has well done its part to bring about the collapse of this country and has gone far to aid and abet in the loss of rights that the people in this country once had.

KINGDOM LIVING

It's time to start calling it like the Bible does. The Lord Jesus never once let ignorance stand without trying to correct it. The Lord Jesus never stood by and let error prevail. In order for Him to even acknowledge that the ignorance of man had a place in society, it was done while He hung on a cross. Yet that was only permitted so that Scripture could be fulfilled.

Believe it or not, I still have so much more to say, but I will, however, close for now and eagerly await your thoughts concerning what I have written to you today.

Sincerely Because Christ is King NOW!!!

This letter more than covers the corporate "church." I think it is evident from the points that I have brought out that it is no wonder things are so messed up. Over and over throughout the Scriptures the people are warned about following the leaders blindly. Isaiah warned that the leaders of this people have caused them to err, and they that are led of them are destroyed. It is interesting to note that on Sunday the "church" decides to officially be a "church." On "Sunday" the "church" is created with Christ as her "head." Then on Monday, the "pastor" goes down and plops his rear at the foot of some attorney to help him get "official." The Hale versus Henkel Supreme Court decision that I referred to in the preceding letter states that...The corporation is a creature of the state... How can this be reconciled with Christ being the "head" when the "law" says that the State is THE CREATOR of the "church" corporation? What happens is no different for the "church body" than it is for the individuals that make it up — Christ is "Lord" on Sunday — but the people belong to the State Monday through Saturday! Can't we read what Christ had to say about attorneys in Scripture? Do we ever learn anything about the Scripture? Christ never had one good thing to say about attorneys, yet we don't have the sense to recognize what He said was true and that it is still true.

KINGDOM LIVING

I have discussed the "corporate church" in the U.S. and tried to shine a light on it exposing its use by the One Worlders. But this really doesn't go deep enough to where the root of the issue is. In another booklet titled, Which Law for You? - I go into greater detail explaining that the English word "church" should not even be used in an English Bible. In Tyndale's translation of the Bible, he refused to translate the Greek word ecclesia as "church." He said that the word "church" was the "establishment's word." I believe this as well.

The Greek word ecclesia means "a called out Christian community of believers." Called out from what? Called out from the "governments of men" and into the Kingdom of Christ. Called out from the domain of darkness and into the dominion of Christ who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

I am amazed at how many people who claim to be the followers of Christ scoff at the word Theocracy. They ridicule anyone who would even mention that this is the form of "government" that God would have for His people. And, on the other hand, they promote Democracy - and even worse - Republican Democracy. A Democracy is more clearly defined as the mob rules. A Republican Democracy is better understood to be the law of the mob rules.

The clear teaching of the Scripture FOR GOD'S PEOPLE is that they should be ruled ONLY by King Jesus. The husband / father is to lead his family within the community based on the laws of God and the principles found within the Scripture. The Kingdom or government of Jesus is rooted on the local, community level. This stands in direct opposition to the domain of darkness - which seeks universal, global control of every living breathing creature that inhabits the earth. Joshua made this clear when he stated: "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

I have tried to show those that call Christ King that simply saying those words is not the answer for the problems that plague us today. Christ is King NOW and as such He is the Supreme Sovereign over all. His words are the words that we live by. Everything that was done from Creation to the Taking Away of the Old Covenant at A.D. 70 was done for one central purpose — THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE GLORIOUS KINGDOM OF CHRIST. Everything in Scripture, Old and New, points to this time. We live in the absolute greatest time in the history of man.

KINGDOM LIVING

It is such a shame that men have wasted their presence here on earth waiting. Waiting for something that was given 2,000 years ago. The enemy realized that the gospel of the true Kingdom of Christ was the only thing that stood in its way. An all-out assault was undertaken years ago and has continued until it has virtually replaced the truth of the Kingdom of Our Great God and King - Jesus Christ, Yashua the Messiah, The Lamb of God, THE KING OF KINGS!

Conclusion

While it may appear that I have given the reader too much too soon, or as it was told to me in a letter that I received today about releasing an atomic bomb of information; it is my firm belief that I haven't released anything that has not been preached for time immemorial. We are living in a time when the world is crazy. It's as if everyone is running around like chickens without heads. The world is in desperate need of being turned upside down. It is in need of serious repair. For the last hundred years in particular, the world has been bombarded with the teaching that someday some messiah would return on a white horse and miraculously cure the world's woes. While everyone has been sitting around waiting for this day, the enemy has had a field day in wreaking havoc on the people. All of this has occurred while the people have called Him King.

Everyone calls Him King! I am only saying that if you call Him King — then act like it. What could be too much about that? I have identified who attacked the gospel, I have shown why, and now I am just appealing to you who claim Him as King, to just walk in His ways. His ways are Just. His ways are Pure. His ways are Perfect! Why would anyone not want to walk in His ways?

As I said in the concluding lines of the last chapter, there is so much more that needs to be brought out. We have all been deceived into thinking that we were born into a "Christian" nation, therefore living and walking in the ways of this country is fulfilling the Christian life. Hopefully, you have seen that this is another Great Hoax. While I feel that The Religion of the New World Order, that is the future rapture of the Church and subsequent Great Tribulation period and Millennial Reign of Christ on the Earth, is The Religion of the New World Order; I want you to realize that this had to first be accomplished in order to place the true Kingdom of Christ out of the reach of man, and into man's future. The hoax that has been perpetrated and propagated is one that seems to be a never ending web of deceit and lies.

CONCLUSION

Because of this, the life-style that we have all been raised in has been built on lies and the foundation required for life in the Kingdom of Christ has been completely destroyed in this civilization.

We are now at a point of time in history that can be likened to the time where David said,

If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

This is exactly where we are. We must be determined to rebuild the foundations. We must begin walking in the ways of the Kingdom now! So many of the "rebuilders" that are talking these days tell everyone to be sure and "get your ducks in a row" before you take any steps. I do not buy into that philosophy! Delay. Delay. Delay. These are the rules and teachings of the world. The Scripture says, Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature, old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new... And, today is the day of salvation... Those principles are every bit as valid today as they were 2,000 years ago. As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so WALK YE IN HIM: Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

What I have tried to get you to see is that for the true believer in Christ, there is NO government but CHRIST'S. There are Christians in America who are waking up and are trying to "change" things but they are still tied to this idea that the U.S. "government" and the U.S. Constitution are to be revered and held in some esteem in obedience to the Scriptures. These things are simply added points to the pincer. For the believer, there is NO government but CHRIST'S!

Many of these people that hold these ideas fly American flags in their churches and stand and proudly recite the Pledge of Allegiance. Come on — pledge means swear! Christ told His followers, those that would live in His Kingdom by His rules and commandments, SWEAR NOT AT ALL! James wrote in James 5,...Above all things, brethren, SWEAR NOT AT ALL!

James said SWEAR NOT AT ALL. He said ABOVE ALL THINGS.... What was he trying to say? Was this an important aspect of Kingdom living, or was it a non-issue? It was certainly important, and to James, it must have been the most important thing...ABOVE ALL THINGS, BRETHERN, SWEAR NOT!

What about Allegiance? Webster's 1828 Dictionary says Allegiance means The tie or obligation of a subject to his Prince or government; the duty of fidelity to a king, government of state. Every native or citizen owes allegiance to the government under which he is born. This is called natural or implied allegiance, which arises from the connection of a person with the society in which he is born, and his duty to be a faithful subject, independent of any express promise. Express allegiance, is that obligation which proceeds from an express promise, or oath, of fidelity.

Black's Law Dictionary says that an oath of allegiance is an oath by which a person promises and binds himself to bear true allegiance to a particular sovereign or government.

In light of these definitions, and in light of the very words of Christ in instructing His followers NOT TO SWEAR OATHS, would somebody please tell me how someone that claims that Christ is their King, could stand and "Pledge Allegiance to the flag, and to the Republic for which it stands.....?" I get it, it finishes up by saying, One nation, under God,... that's what makes it good. What if that pledge said, One world, under God,...? Does swearing oaths to other governments have anything to do with NOT HAVING ANY OTHER GODS (SOVEREIGNS) BEFORE ME?

CONCLUSION

Where did you first learn to say this pledge? Was it in the government school? Recently a man was telling me that the way to change things was to get "christians" elected to school boards. My response to that was again that we have flawed thinking as it relates to the Kingdom. If you call yourself a Christian, then who is responsible for the education of your children? I realize that the verses that I am going to quote to you are from the Old Testament, but I have to believe that the principle is still good for today. In Deuteronomy 6, God tells Israel what they were to do with their children —

Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one LORD: And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up...

This Deuteronomy passage is the one that Christ directly refers to in Luke 10. So what does that mean for sending your children off to "government" indoctrination classes for eight hours a day? Is there some 8 to 10 hours of missing time where Christ said it was okay to let someone else do the teaching and training of your children? For some, who are opposed to sending their children off to the battlefields of the "government" schools, they have opted for the "christian schools." This being the case, all they have done is opt for the lesser of two evils. God told YOU to teach your children — not someone else! God didn't tell you to send them off to some "christian school" somewhere and let them do it! God told YOU to teach your children. Truly this is Kingdom living. The experiences that I have had with "christian schools" has led me to realize that in many cases, all they are is reform schools for the public school flunkies. The "christian school" tuition tends to be a lot less than other private schools, so when a child gets booted from the free "government" school, they end up in the cheapest of private schools — the "christian school." (To get booted from a "government" school, you have to be really bad!) That means that the state loses thousands of federal dollars — something that they don't like to give up easily!

But what if home-schooling is against the law in your state? Conformity to the Kingdom of Christ appears to be non-conformity to the non-governments of the world. Then so be it. But what if you don't think you can do it? There hath NO temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation, also make a way of escape that ye may be able to bear it. The temptation is to send your kids off and let someone "more qualified" do the teaching. But God is faithful and will provide a way for you to accomplish his purpose in your life and in the lives of your children. Our children are the only chance that we have to do any rebuilding of the foundations. This will not be a popular statement, but - it would be better to have your child as dumb as a box of rocks - (as far as the world is concerned) - but living in obedience to the will of God - than it would be for them to be the most "educated" that the world has to offer - and be outside the will of God.

I believe that this country (as of 1787) was officially never a Christian nation, I do believe that there were people who came here that did in fact proclaim that they had NO KING BUT JESUS. (Incidentally, these were also the same people that rebelled against the Constitutional Convention.) It was this foundation - the people that lived on this continent in the 1500s, the 1600s and the early 1700s - that gave this land whatever Christian roots that it may have had. I believe that for a short period of time in the history of life on this continent, a man could actually have lived according to the Kingdom of Christ, without any fear of persecution from "government." This is what we need to strive to give to our children and our grandchildren. The only way that we can possibly bring this about is to teach our children day and night concerning Kingdom living.

Our children must know that the systems and non-governments of this world demand obedience from their subjects that requires disobedience to the KING OF KINGS. If we teach our children according to Deuteronomy Chapter 6's blueprint, then we must take comfort in the Proverbs teaching of —

CONCLUSION

Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.

So many times I have heard people tell me that those were just "pie in the sky" words. Why would they say such a thing? Because they lost their kids! Their kids didn't turn out the way they wanted. Well, if it is done God's way and according to the Kingdom of Christ, then those "pie in the sky" teachings will bear fruit. But as long as we continually live in rebellion against the Kingdom of Christ, we will see our children turn away from us and towards the source of their education. Someone once said, "You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink." I must admit to you that I haven't been around horses much, but I know this, every time I've ever seen a horse led to water — HE DRINKS. Lead a child in the way he should go AND HE WILL FOLLOW. The words of God are true and shall never pass away. Let's stop blaming God for our failures and start identifying our own inadequacies as the source of the failure and begin to do something about it.

Not only do we need to start keeping our children home — but we need to start having more of them! Children that is! Children are an heritage of the Lord....blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them!

At the rate the world is killing their babies — if believers were being obedient to the very first words that God spoke to man, we could see some real impact made for the Kingdom of Christ. Just by nothing else but us having more numbers than they have! But our problem is that most "christians" have 2.5 children like the rest of the world, but rather than bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord — we send our children off for government indoctrination in the ways and philosophies of the world — and then we sit back and wonder why we lose our children. This is not a difficult thing to figure out! KEEP YOUR CHILDREN HOME! This pile of you know what about not sheltering our kids and wanting them not to be social misfits is a lie! It is a cheap cop out that relieves the consciences of religious people who know down deep that they are truly doing the wrong thing with their children.

People tell me all the time that they "can't afford to have any more children." Well, when you live in the cities, that may well be true. Children actually become liabilities. So what do we do about that? Change the place you live! Go to a place where children become ASSETS instead of liabilities. To the farm! Everyone talks about "taking back the land." Are they talking about concrete land — or the soil that God created for man to toil on and provide for his family from?

A lady recently told me that it was okay for us to have a king because God gave one to the Israelites. Tis true. But God begged and pleaded with them not to do it.

I believe that we have now come full circle to where we should be. The true Kingdom of Christ can be paralleled to where the Israelites were before they asked for a king like everyone else. Before Saul, they had God alone. This is where we should be. We HAVE NO KING BUT CHRIST.

CONCLUSION

Lastly, one of the biggest reasons that we have lost any chance of gaining truth is because of our love of money. The love of money has hindered us from doing what we were told to do first — Seek the Kingdom of God.

Because "Christians" have been so busy conforming to this world, we don't have time to Seek the Kingdom. That's one of the reasons why this "putting off" or delaying of the Kingdom is so popular. "Christians" are so busy paying off their debts, that the husband has no time to study, the wife is working, too, and the children are rushed off for their daily doses of indoctrination classes for the New World Order at either the public or the "christian" school. They both teach the same things, your kid is just a little less likely to fall victim to a homicidal gunman at the "christian school."

While "christians" are supposed to be walking in LIFE with Christ as their King, they are hopelessly bound and chained to this world's system. While they claim LIFE in Christ, they have MORTGAGES for their dwellings. Anybody ever tell you what that word meant? Well, the prefix, mort means death and the combining word gage means pledge. So here we have "christians" living their lives with death pledges. Is this walking in the Light? Is this the abundant LIFE that Jesus spoke of? Exactly what did He mean when He told His followers that man could not serve two masters? Was He thinking about the Proverb that says, The borrower is servant to the lender...? Does God know anything? When Paul told those striving to live in the ways of the Kingdom in Romans 13:8 to: Owe no man anything.... — could he actually have been referring to the teachings of Christ? Surely not, Paul, the teachings of Christ are for a period sometime after the Great Tribulation period.

Entering into entanglements with this world and its system sets off a chain reaction of things that builds a huge web that is not easily removed. What I am hoping to accomplish in this book, is to help the reader understand that living in conformity to the Kingdom of Christ means living a life of obedience and subjection to Him in every single aspect of life; every single breath that you take. Every single word that you speak. Everything that we do and say needs to conform to His Kingdom — NOW!

I will close with the following — these words are not new. This is not the result of some new revelation, or prophecy because there is no new revelation or prophecy! All is fulfilled. Men have taught the gospel of the Kingdom of Christ for over 4,000 years! The men in the Old Testament preached it according to their future, the men in the New Testament preached it according to their future. When it finally came in fulfillment of their prophecies concerning A.D. 70, men have taught it and walked it throughout all time since. The true gospel of the Kingdom of Christ has always found its way to the hearts of receptive men, in spite of all the attacks that it has been besieged with!

THEY ALL CALL HIM KING

It is easy to identify globalism on the political level. It is easy to identify globalism on an economic level. But what has been used to further the globalist agenda in a much more successful way, has been globalism on the religious level. The religious arm of globalism has advanced the globalist agenda more than the political and economic arms of globalism combined - and there are very few people that have identified it.

They All Call Him King is a follow up to a book first written in 1989 entitled The Religion of the New World Order. In The Religion of the New World Order, proof is given from the Scriptures that ALL Bible prophecy has been fulfilled. The modern day preaching that we are in the "end times" now is a tool of the elitist, one world globalists who have propagated this false doctrine for the purpose of making the masses complacent - and compliant - to their globalist control ideals.

The "churches" - through the carrot of the tax-deductible gift and tax-exempt status are preaching this message of globalism and have been the driving force for globalism in the world today.

Ultimately, the only thing that can stand in the way of the globalist freight train is the gospel of the Kingdom of Christ. With the understanding that ALL Bible prophecy has been fulfilled, then it follows that Jesus Christ has already been revealed as King of kings and Lord of lords.

There was a time on this continent when men stood against evil by proclaiming, No King But Jesus. Where did they get the authority to say this? They understood that Jesus WAS NOT a coming King - but He was already King. When the people that claim to be followers of King Jesus awaken to the fact that the gospel of the Kingdom of Christ has been CHANGED - and then repent, and turn to the Kingdom of Christ - our land will be healed and God will once again turn His face to us.
