Is the emblem of the tribe of Dan a scorpion or an eagle? Before we attempt an answer to that question, it is important to understand a little about the sign of Scorpio itself.

Fred Gettings, writing in The Secret Zodiac, says that this sign is the only one of the twelve Signs of the Zodiac which has the potential to display a dual nature: either the upward path of spiritual purification and perfection (beginning with repentance, baptism, and a proper understanding of the requirements of the “born-again” process); or the downward path leading to spiritual degradation and ultimate eternal death. Thus the eagle represents the upward path, because the eagle is a representation of the Sun, which is the destiny of all who will be saved, and the scorpion the downward path: “The eagle of St John is the eagle of Scorpio, which sign (alone of all the twelve) has two images, the eagle the symbol of the redeemed and spiritualized Scorpionic nature, the scorpion its fallen, unredeemed and earth-bound nature.” Gettings, Fred. The Secret Zodiac: The Hidden Art In Medieval Astrology, Routledge and Kegan Paul, 1987.

So, that is the background. We are now in a better position to answer the original question: Is the emblem of the tribe of Dan a scorpion or an eagle? According to an article on Watch.Pair.com, the sign of the tribe of Dan is a scorpion, denoting the downward path, but the tribal leaders during the Exodus refused to march under that banner, so they carried the eagle instead. This illustrates a very early case of pure hypocrisy indeed:

“The emblem of the tribe of Dan was the serpent, in fulfillment of Jacob's prophecy in Genesis 49: 17: ‘Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.’ [Nazarene Remnant comment: “Falling backward” is a reference to falling into sin, and beginning the downward path to the Pit. The serpent that does the biting is the dark side of the Moon!]

However, the prince of the tribe of Dan replaced the serpent with an eagle. “To Dan was given the symbol of Scorpio, which, in the ancient Egyptian zodiac was a snake. However, when the time came to hoist the symbol of the snake, Ahiezer refused and chose instead the symbol of an eagle. According to Unger's Bible Dictionary: ‘Dan's position in the journey was on the North of the Tabernacle, with Asher and Naphtali. The standard of the tribe was of white and red, and the crest upon it, an eagle, the great foe to serpents, which had been chosen by the leader instead of a serpent, because Jacob had compared Dan to a serpent. Ahiezer substituted the eagle, the destroyer of serpents, as he shrank from carrying an adder upon his flag.

It may prove worthwhile to consider the possible connection to the tribe of Dan whenever an eagle is used as the symbol of subsequent leaders or nations.” From The False Gospel In The Stars: Preparing The Way Of The Antichrist, Chapter on “Scorpio, The Serpent Holder.”

There is little doubt that the sign of Scorpio will inaugurate the Judeo-Masonic New World Order, aka the Nazi [from Ashkenazi] Fourth Reich, and the New Babylon. Also remember that the Nazi regime of the Third Reich choose the eagle as one of its symbols, and we would do well to understand the evil Masonic dictum of “freeze–sleep–revive,” so that what we are actually witnessing today is the revival of the Nazi Third Reich. We would also do well to remember always that the current Prince of Wales, Prince Charles, the thirteenth in that line, and the coming Antichrist, has chosen the downward path, and he was born under the Sign of Scorpio (his birthdate is November 14, 1948)!

The Nazi Flying Eagle of the Third Reich, which is meant to depict the Sign of Scorpio. We are about to see this Nazi insignia make a reappearance in the world during the Last Days, which is the fourth, or final, empire.

In the article “Cancer: Heaven's Gate,” which is part of the series, The False Gospel In The Stars: Preparing The Way Of The Antichrist, the author makes the following very interesting observations:

“In his book, J. R. Church makes a compelling case that the Merovingians are descendants of the Tribe of Dan. In the book of Judges, Dan's most famous judge, Samson, proposed a strange riddle about bees who made honey: “Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness.” (Judges 14:14)

“Four symbols are used in the Bible concerning the Danites — a serpent, an eagle, a lion, and the bees. [Nazarene Remnant comment: Bees are also considered to be the international symbol of Freemasonry. The beehive is composed of three main classes of bees: the Queen, the drones, and the worker bees. This is an very useful model for portraying Masonry because the worker bees are all equivalent to the worker bee class, who are controlled by the Queen [Queen Elizabeth II, aka Queen Semiramis II] and the drones. In Stanley Kubrick's last film, Eyes Wide Shut, starring Tom Cruise and Nicole Kidman, we see the emblematic use of the beehive used on the throne on which the “master of the orgy” ceremony sat.] In the story of Samson, we find the famous riddle of the bees who made honey in the carcass of a lion which had been killed by Samson. The symbolic nature of the bees could represent the concept that the descendants of the tribe of Dan would one day try to bring about the destruction of the tribe of Judah, whose symbol was the lion, and from the carcass of the lion the tribe of Dan would attempt to produce the golden age of a world empire, symbolized by the honey. [Nazarene Remnant comment: This will be the Antichrist's version of the Golden Age, which insiders boast is a revival of King Arthur's Camelot.] The Merovingians claim of coming from the tribe of Judah (through Mary Magdalene and Jesus Christ) is not true. The lie may have been advanced because the symbol of Judah was the lion. However, I believe the Merovingians were from the tribe of Dan." - 127:82,103,109

Was Samson trying to communicate a cryptic message to the Philistines, with whom he was allied through marriage? The tribe of Dan later became involved in the worship of false gods when they relocated from their inheritance by the seacoast of Israel to the northern area of Palestine at Mount Hermon. Considering Samson's apostasy and the idolatrous history of the tribe of Dan, it may be that Samson's riddle was an end-time prophecy revealing Dan's alliance with pagan cultures whose agenda was to reestablish a future Golden Age. A restoration of the Golden Age of Saturn, the pre-flood civilization which God judged, would be accomplished on the ruins of the tribe of Judah, the bloodline of Jesus Christ, or more likely, the overthrow of Jesus Christ by Satan's demonic bloodline. This future coup may have been typified by Samson as honey (gnosis/ancient wisdom) in the carcass (dead body) of the Lion of Judah (Jesus Christ). J. R. Church states that the apostate tribe of Dan specifically engaged in the worship of the Mother Goddess, Diana, which they adopted from the indigenous Canaanites who had occupied the northern area of Palestine at Mt. Hermon. Church also posits that the Danites exported this goddess worship to Greece after the Assyrian invasion in 722 B.C.

"Now, the question remains, how do we know the Spartans were the offspring of the tribe of Dan?... Aside from the fact that the Spartans wore long hair as a symbol of their power (like Samson) there is a legend written about the son of Belus, king of the Spartans — in which is given the story of one named 'Danaus,' who arrived in Greece with his daughters by ship. According to the legend, his daughters called themselves Danades. They introduced the cult of the mother goddess [i.e. Diana of the Ephesians], which became the established religion of the Arcadians and developed over the years into the worship of Diana... The Spartans so loved their king that they called themselves Danaans — long before they adopted the name of Spartans. Also in the legend is a record of the arrival of 'colonists from Palestine.' Please note, the man who headed the expedition was named Danaus. He may well have been of the tribe of Dan, and thus would have been the progenitor of the ancient Spartans." - 127:120-121(Source: <http://watch.pair.com/cancer.html>)

Thus we have said much to point out that the symbol of the eagle goes right back to Babylon and the tribe of Dan imprisoned there after the fall of Jerusalem. Remember the tribe of Dan became satanic! All scripture points to the fact that the Antichrist will arise out of the tribe of Dan, and that this tribe's modern location is clearly associated with the number 33. Now on the 33rd degree of Latitude, in Northern Israel, is located Mount Zion (Sion aka Mount Hermon), and while much attention is given to the Temple Mount in Jerusalem as the location for the Third Temple, we will probably find that the demonic Antichrist and his followers will base their Third Temple on Mt. Zion, on the 33rd degree in Northern Israel! This fact, along with the truth that one-third (33%) of the angels followed satan in the rebellion against Ptah, accounts for the name of the position in Freemasonry known as the 33rd degree Freemason. The final point is that the modern Illuminati bloodlines are the modern descendants of the tribe of Dan, who are all descendants of the sexual relationship that caused the Fall, which was the fact that satan had adulterous sex with Eve, and produced the bastard line of Cain. Of course this is one of the most profound secrets of Freemasonry, and not available to "porch" Masons, who labour on in the dark!
