Have you ever wondered why Cindy McCain liked to dress like a space-princess during her husband's presidential campaign? -- Or why Prince Harry once turned up at a party, wearing the Swastika armband of a Very "Verboten!" Party?

There might be an explanation to all of this, but unless we re-think our "historically"-received world-view, we won't ever see it ... and for that, and to understand what is really happening in the world and its politics today, we have to return to 1945, to the closing days of World War Two ...

When, in mid-March of 1945, SS-General Dr. of Engineering Hans Kammler launched the world's very first ICBM (Inter-Continental Ballistic Missile) from Thuringen (Thuringia) in Central Germany and it passed over northern Norway thirty minutes later, (ca. 1'400 miles), to impact the frozen Arctic wastes after 45 minutes' flight, (2'100+ Miles?), guided to a planted radio beacon by its on-board homing-device and missing its target by a full six Metres (around 20 feet) (!) as it slammed into the far Northern ice, it seemed that the Second World War had just been won for Germany, right at the last moment, at "five-minutes-to-midnight" as Hitler had prophesied to his German people -- and that by his long-promised "Wunderwaffe" or "Wonder-Weapon". The accuracy of that homing-device was not to be achieved by either the USSR or the USSA for many decades to come.

Around that time, a team of German agents had been landed by submarine on the US coastline to plant homing devices in cities like New York, Washington, Chicago, Detroit and others, but was intercepted by the FBI. Everything had been ready to go : Hitler had come through with his long-promised Wunderwaffe.

At this time, in mid-March of 1945 in the closing days of WWII, with US General

George S. Patton making his desperate dash with his tank army across Bavaria, heading for this secret area of last-stand, Nazi high-tech development, a move historians of the time could not comprehend, (as he should by rights have been heading for the German capital, Berlin), Patton had been ordered there to secure the high technology the Allies had found out was being developed in that area.

With Hitler's Thousand-Year-Reich collapsing about his ears after only twelve years, as his enemies moved in on Germany from all points of the compass and he was admonishing his followers to "Hold out, until five-minutes-past-midnight" as an unbeatable Wunderwaffe or Wonder-Weapon would be available at "five-minutes-to-twelve", all his adherents were desperately hoping that he would come through on his promise. Beleaguered everywhere, Hitler had moved his remaining weapons labs and his best forces into the area of Germany known as Thuringen, (Thuringia), where secret underground factories were churning out V-1 Flying-Bombs, V-2 rockets and rumoured electro-gravitic flying saucers ... and the new Amerika-Rakete or "America-Rocket", the world's first true ICBM!

There were two carrier rockets capable of such a feat : one, the A9/A10, a two-stage, liquid-fuelled, larger variant of the V2 rocket developed at Peenemuende by Dr Walther Thiel, designer of both the V-2's engines and the newer, 200-ton-thrust engines for the booster stage of the new A9/A10 "Amerika-Rakete" and by better-popularised Wernher, Baron von Braun. The second rocket was the three-stage, solid-fuelled brainchild of the SS engineering team at the Czech Skoda works, led by the secretive SS-General Doctor of Engineering, Hans Kammler.

A few days previously, two independent tests of small, compact, enhanced-fission or, in one case, perhaps even direct-fusion nuclear weapon, had been carried out in that same troop-training area of Germany, near a town named Ohrdruf, in a landscape whose appearance was markedly altered by the micro-nuclear blasts, and near which the German Reich's most-secret research and manufacturing facilities were located deep underground, some of which have not even been found to this very day. The realisation by the Western Allies of truly small nuclear weapons on the scale of the German designs of 1945, variously described by witnesses of the time as being "around the size of a small pumpkin", would have to wait another 20 to 40 years or so.

The first bomb test created the typically brilliant nuclear flash with fireball and mushroom cloud, the second only the brilliant flash with no mushroom cloud (!). Witnesses with unprotected eyes suffered major problems, and severe headaches were predominant throughout the area. The first test incinerated hundreds of unwanted slave-workers purposely arranged close to the event and over a dozen SS guards and so badly burned many hundreds more workers and several dozen SS men, that they had had to be shot to put them out of their misery [!].

Even more remarkable, is the fact that the Allies apparently had excellent intelligence on quite another German test of a nuclear weapon, as only a nuke could produce the quantity of energy and concentrated heat intensity to do what was apparently the first deliberate test of a nuclear weapon on a town-sized human population, a town specially built and its Jewish population of 20'000 installed for that very purpose, an event well-documented by several sources : this came out at the Nuremberg Tribunals during the cross-questioning of Albert Speer, Hitler's former architect and then-Reich's Armaments Minister, see :

www.law.umkc.edu/faculty/projects/ftrials/nuremberg/Speer.html in which the pertinent part went like this :

“MR. JUSTICE JACKSON: Now, I have certain information, which was placed in my hands, of an experiment which was carried out near Auschwitz and I would like to ask you if you heard about it or knew about it. The purpose of the experiment was to find a quick and complete way of destroying people without the delay and trouble of shooting and gassing and burning, as it had been carried out, and this is the experiment, as I am advised. A village, a small village was provisionally erected, with temporary structures, and in it approximately 20000 Jews were put. By means of this newly invented weapon of destruction, these 20000 people were eradicated almost instantaneously, and in such a way that there was no trace left of them; that it developed, the explosive developed, temperatures of from 400 to 500 centigrade and destroyed them without leaving any trace at all.

Do you know about that experiment?

SPEER: No, and I consider it utterly improbable. If we had had such a weapon under preparation, I should have known about it. But we did not have such a weapon. It is clear that in chemical warfare attempts were made on both sides to carry out research on all the weapons one could think of, because one did not know which party would start chemical warfare first.”

[The temperatures mentioned above should by rights have another zero tacked onto them at the end, that is, be ten times greater than quoted here. Was this a mistake, an oversight, or a deliberate obfuscation of the facts so as not to alarm the world that the Germans, not the Western Allies, had developed the world's first recent-history atomic bombs? -- Author]

But even more remarkable than this flat-out denial by someone who should by rights have known, is the fact that the judge himself seems to have suggested a way out of the dilemma of ever rolling up this awkward question again at any time in the future -- and Albert Speer grasped this apparently leading-question and proffered straw and answered to everyone's future satisfaction, thus laying the spook of a possible German nuclear weapon that would have spoiled forever the post-War Allied Legend of their having developed one first :

“MR. JUSTICE JACKSON: The reports, then, of a new and secret weapon were exaggerated for the purpose of keeping the German people in the war?

SPEER: That was the case mostly during the last phase of the war. From August, or rather June or 7/1944 on I very often went to the front. I visited about 40 front-line divisions in their sectors and could not help seeing that the troops, just like the German people, were given hopes about a new weapon coming, new weapons and wonder-weapons which, without requiring the use of soldiers, without military forces, would guarantee victory. In this belief lies the secret why so many people in Germany offered their lives, although common sense told them that the war was over. They believed that within the near future this new weapon would arrive. I wrote to Hitler about it and also tried in different speeches, even before Goebbels' propaganda leaders, to work against this belief. Both Hitler and Goebbels told me, however, that this was no propaganda of theirs but that it was a belief which had grown up amongst the people. Only in the dock here in Nuremberg, I was- told by Fritzsche that this propaganda was spread systematically among the people through some channels or other, and that SS Standartenfuhrer Berg was responsible for it. Many things have become clear to me since, because this man Berg, as a representative of the Ministry of Propaganda, had often taken part in meetings, in big sessions of my Ministry, as he was writing articles about these sessions. There he heard of our future plans and then used this knowledge to tell the people about them with more imagination than truth."

So why was Hitler's Wunderwaffe never used? Why, with the A9/A10 ready-to-go, with a maximum range of 4'000 Kilometres or 2'500 miles, by going into a long supersonic glide high in the stratosphere, with its accurate homing systems and its compact nuclear warheads small enough to be transported, were the cities of New York, Washington, London and Moscow not simply incinerated off the face of the earth, in short, WHY DID GERMANY LOSE THE WAR?

[If you think the story of the German Atom Bomb is baloney, take a look at the picture at the end of this article, of a German technical estimate of damage to New York -- some-when between 1941 and 1943! (Picture free off the Web, attributes unknown) -- Author]

Historically founded, it was all ready-to-go, and it looked like Hitler was about to win the war, just as he had promised, at five-minutes-to-twelve.

So what went wrong?

According to a book, "GEHEIME REICHSSACHE : Thueringen und die deutsche Atombombe" (Secret Reich Matter : Thuringia and the German Atomic Bomb) by German authors Edgar MAYER and Thomas MEHNER, (Kopp Verlag, 2004, 2008), what went wrong was that as Hitler was about to move into his new Fuehrerbunker in Thuringia to lead his country's victorious resurgence from defeat into victory at the last moment, his use of the Wunderwaffe was DENIED HIM – and by no lesser-figures than his Minister of Armaments, Albert Speer, and SS-General Dr Hans Kammler, his Chief of Research and Development, himself!

WHY, one might ask? -- And the answer is simple -- though not necessarily to us! :

BECAUSE BOTH OF THEM BELONGED TO THE GERMAN ELITE! -- an Elite who had decided (ostensibly) to stop the War (and the Third Reich?) at that point, to, presumably, sometime in the future, lead the world into a newer, better, Fourth Reich! So WHY would the Elite pull the plug on Their Boy, Adolf Hitler?

Because, that handful of families that rule the world ARE ALL RELATED! : Down the ages, to fortify allegiances of power in order to broaden their power-base and extend their kingdoms and might over the common people, kings would marry queens and arrange for princes to marry princesses, for, as the old adage goes : "BLOOD IS THICKER THAN WATER!" -- and WE, THE PEASANTS, ARE, TO THEM, THE WATER! Only the "Bloodlines", the self-elected "Elite", may rule!!

Otherwise, the last bit about the Third Reich "choosing" to fall simply doesn't make any sense at all, for, as WWII came to a close, Germany's much-vaunted "racial purity" was immediately diluted and miscegenated in being over-run by invading, raping armies, while Germany's rapid postwar development was mainly achieved by a massive influx of foreign "guest-worker" help -- that came to settle.

So why lose your country and your people, if you could have saved both -- and yourself, too, into the bargain? Because, to the Elite, its peoples are expendable!

And why did Germany seemingly passively go along with the Post-War Allied Legend of Western Allied superiority in the technological field, when, according to recent documents coming to light, (cf. The book, "CRITICAL MASS" by Carter HYDRICK), Martin Bormann, Hitler's Deputy Reichsfuehrer, had, in early May of 1945, turned over to the USA one of the Reich's most-advanced U-boats, U234, with 560 Kilograms (1'132 lbs) of enriched Uranium-235 in its oxide form, along with infrared proximity fuses that could be used for simultaneous detonation of the many implosion detonators in implosion-type nuclear weapons, and thereby helped the stalled Manhattan Project out of its hole in production of Enriched Uranium and solved what was at that time still an intractable problem for the Americans in the implosion-detonation process for their Plutonium Bomb?

Martin Bormann, who was officially testified as dead, having been seen "killed" -- [and that at least twice (!)] -- during the final battle for Berlin, was yet tracked by Argentinian Intelligence when he entered Argentina in 1948 (!!), on a steamer from Italy, dressed as a Jesuit monk and carrying a Vatican passport (!!!). He not only held a JOINT (!) bank-account with Argentine then-dictator Juan Peron, but banked around the world IN HIS OWN NAME (!!!!) (see Joseph P. Farrel's "NAZI INTERNATIONAL") -- in other words, he was NOT really hiding at all -- except in "official" media history! -- so just WHO was covering-up for WHOM, and WHY???

Had Bormann cut a deal with the Americans for his and his friends' survival, by turning over to them plans and even components for obsolescent V2 rockets and Messerschmidt Me-262 jet fighters and by then for the Germans quite obsolete, primitive and clumsy nuclear weapons, along with perhaps two finished A-bombs, according to some witnesses, one of which, the gun-type U-235 fission-bomb of "Little Boy"-type, might actually have been dropped on Hiroshima, as that bomb design had, by American accounts of "their" development of it, never been tested in practice (!) -- but according to some speculation on the emerging, hidden real history of the end of WWII, might actually have been a GERMAN-MADE bomb and have already been tested by the Germans in the wastes of the Eastern Front?

That possibility, that Bormann cut a deal with the USA for his continued survival, is pertinent, as, according to the book "AFTERMATH" by Ladislav FARRAGO, metaphorically half of South America knew perfectly well where Bormann was and what he was doing, but it is NOT the only satisfactory answer, as I see it :

An even more-comprehensive answer, which would also explain major-power complicity in even the information allowed to be made public at the Nuremberg Trials, is that the Elite had perhaps, for reasons known to them but not to us, either decided to call the war quits, either because sufficient profits had already been accrued and further attrition was undesirable to the post-war rebuilding of their economies, or else (Wotan preserve us!) had actually STAGED WWII TO FORCE-DEVELOP THE TECHNOLOGY NEEDED TO GET THEM, AS AN ELITE GROUP, OFF-PLANET IN TIME TO ESCAPE SOME FUTURE EVENT OF WORLD-WIDE, CATASTROPHIC PROPORTIONS, that they somehow knew, perhaps by decoding old records of past civilisations, was coming down on us to decimate, not only human life as we know it, but also our entire planet, and that perhaps even within their own lifetimes.

There was a brief flurry of aeronautic-corporate excitement over supposedly imminent anti-gravity technologies in the 1950s, that suddenly disappeared, as though having been switched off, see Nick COOK's "The Hunt For Zero-Point".

There are ample numbers of reports about secret "Area 51", about shot-down and crashed UFOs, even a US UFO-factory at Pine Gap, Australia ... are German World-War Two technologies, exhumed and reconstituted from ancient Egyptian, Sanskrit and Vedic texts by the truly vast resources that SS-Heinrich Himmler's "Ahnenerbe" had at its disposal, now being further developed, used and prepared today in secret by an Elitist N.W.O., at the expense of The Many, for the benefit of The Few? -- which latter might evacuate this planet, while the rest of us perish?

Let us look at some possibilities for an event of catastrophic proportions, that the Elite might wish to escape :

We know that the Earth, along with our Solar System, is now passing, for around a 20-year period, through the Plane of the Galactic Ecliptic and denser material in the Galactic accretion disk, possibly with higher-strength magnetic effects too. This might be having some effect on our Sun, as, if by nothing else, one should have noticed that whereas, a few years ago, sunscreen creams came in factors of between 2 and 15 and up to 20 or so, they most generally now start at 15 or 20 and go as high as 150 or more -- or haven't you yet noticed how hot the Sun is getting, and how sometimes a night can be cool to actually cold, as soon as the earth is out of direct sunlight, yet with the dawn, the heat gets extremely vicious, sometimes only to be relieved by violent windstorms as cooler air from elsewhere moves in to replace the rising, heated, hot air and also convectional storms seem to have far more violence than they used to have before? (Not to speak of Tornadoes ...!)

We are also overdue for one of the apparently rather accurately-distributed, 63-million-year-cyclical, Mass-Extinction Events. What might cause these? A brilliant friend tells me that one of the reasons the Sun is periodically so hot, is that it is turning into an Intermittent Star due to sporadic Helium burning as its Hydrogen falls below 50% of their common mass, or for other reasons we do not yet know about. Helium burning (fusion) is far more energetic than Hydrogen fusion. This might explain the perceived intensity of solar heat in-fall and its strange periodicity on a short-term-cycle basis. Might this get worse and perhaps even bad enough to cause a Mass Extinction Event?

And, if so, where would the Elite go, to escape it? -- another Planet in our Solar System, another, Parallel Universe, twisted some degrees out of phase with our Continuum, or another Time, just some microns of distance within/without ours?

Certainly, the German "Bell Project", (see Joseph P. FARRELL's "Reich of the Black Sun" and "SS Brotherhood of the Bell", and Nick COOK's "The Hunt for Zero-Point"), would indicate that the Germans were working on a Time-Machine as intensely as the Americans, with the unexpected outcome to their Philadelphia Experiment, were working on both time-and-space translations -- and all these technologies were rigorously suppressed after World War Two! -- while the general Zeitgeist, or Spirit of the Time, had future-looking visionaries, especially in the Science-Fiction field, getting their Sensitive's vibes out of bidirectional future-time-feedback, speculating about home-made, garage- or backyard-built spacecraft, only to be usurped in public awareness by the extensive and insanely expensive inane farce of world-wide governmental projects like NASA showing us and implanting in the subconscious minds of three generations of nebbishes that the "only way" to get off-planet was to have governmental resources-and-backing enough to hoist relatively tiny payloads off-planet -- using giant rockets ...

So, if the Elite had all this good stuff going for them, where would they then GO? One answer might be intuited by what befell a British TV series that put up a fictional, but purportedly "true story" about Elitist colonies being built on Mars, using slave-labour of "disappeared" persons from Earth, in their science-fiction movie, "ALTERNATIVE THREE".

Now this subject is becoming -- as are most "interesting" alternative topics to what public media bombard us with (even without a fan to throw it on first!) -- a mighty difficult thing to find on a search-engine. Put in the parameters, and a lot of the time, all you get is a mass of rubble, (perhaps deliberately?!) obfuscating the thing you are really looking for!

But here, on a good day, we can still get lucky, even if we can't "see forever" as the old song has it -- or as perhaps the Elite almost can -- if they have managed to get off-planet to some safer, if not necessarily better, place? -- unless it be in a parallel universe, to a pristine Earth, like in H.G.WELLS's "MEN LIKE GODS"! :

For the low-down and the videos on Alternative Three, go here :

Alternative 3

<http://www.thule.org/alt3.html>

<http://www.thule.org/brains/aroundtheconspiracy.html>

Certainly, there are many stories about how "The Elite" are busily digging themselves underground shelters -- and by their open rip-offs of pension-funds and medical schemes it would appear that they DO NOT expect any retribution to anything they might do now! -- are all the rest of us doomed? -- but would that be the only shelters they would seek? -- if all the rest of us might find their air-vents and queue-up to pee down them?

I think not. Alternative Three seems by far the better proposition, if they want to hop out of our common fire, or at least into their own frying-pan!

Now here's an interesting thing! Clif High, brilliant programmer and Igor, his computer-geek, are running a program that sometimes very accurately predicts upcoming events by analysing subconscious human feedback from the Collective Unconscious being picked up by bidirectional feedback leaking from our Future. Certainly, back in Spring of this year, these self-designated "Time Monks", as they call themselves, got both a recent land-uplift in Alaska right, under "Global Coastal Events", as well as the mud-slide that chewed up a house in Germany way down the line in July -- see this photo on this German site :

http://www.focus.de/panorama/welt/erdrutsch-ratloses-entsetzen-in-nachterstedt_aid_418010.html

Their report can be found here, and makes awesome reading, and for a mere $10, it is a bargain! :

www.halfpasthan.com

As upcoming events of the foreseeable future, the Time Monks indicate that the Death of the US Dollar is imminently in the works, at least in its incipient stages; internationally, the writing is on the wall.

They also prophesy a possible attack by Israel on Iran between late October and early November, 2009, which might release some kind of noxious, perhaps radioactive cloud that will travel around the world on the jet-stream, killing millions worldwide.

But there is yet another possibility that seems to loom up in their data-sets :

Access to one's personal bank-account might be made contingent upon one's producing evidence of having been vaccinated (!).

Now this is very interesting, and might just be more pertinent than we imagine, and there might just be some connection between what was recently meant to be a joke, and what serious intent might be on the part of the Elite, and that for the following simple reason :

A brilliant friend, who prefers to assume the mantle of "Iowan Idiot", recently sent out a tongue-in-cheek, jocular mail to his personal friends, with a little poem asking the question :

"Are all Vaccines Created Equal?"

i.e. :

Or are some vaccine ampules more equal than others, having perhaps fewer, or even a greater, number of components, perhaps even the equivalent of a neo-Wild-West "Equalizer" in them?

Given the fact that today's vast databases, compiled through use of international governmental surveillance intruding into all aspects of each and every person's most intimate personal sphere, and given that most manufacturing today is enormously robotised, might perhaps computer-mixed "Personalized Ampules" -- be machine-tailor-made for you, personally, with or without Maximum Prejudice, numbered, and your name ticked off on some list, as to whether you have taken it, or not, before you are allowed into your own bank-account?

(... by which time you might not have time to enjoy what's left, if anything is at all ... or will you by then be a willing zombie, ready to fight someone else's war?).

My friend's mail was meant as a joke, but it looks like Someone, Somewhere, took him very seriously, indeed, for, within hours of that one mail, NONE of his other mails were getting through at all! After a lot of trouble inquiring of his server -- that claimed no knowledge of any disruption to their service (!) -- he finally found someone who managed to determine that his OUTGOING MAIL was being labelled -- BY HIS SERVER, nota bene! -- (!) as JUNK MAIL (!), BEFORE THEY SENT IT OUT (!!)) -- so all other servers were blocking it!

This happened a good couple weeks ago, and yet he is STILL being blocked (!).

Well, Friends, this all might be coincidental, but myself, I think that if that isn't the Writing On The Wall, I really don't know what is?

One further consideration of the Time Monks' data, is that it seems that the populace of the USA will finally get around to revolt, and within the next few years, hunt down and kill, not only their crooked politicians, but also the very powers holding the puppet-strings behind the scenes and hunt down and kill their descendants as well (this stuff is VERY much worth the $10 you pay for it!).

But now we get back to the main question which started off this article in the first place : If the Elite had all that good stuff that came out of WWII's force-fed scientific research, and if they kept it a deep, dark secret for themselves, setting up vast public "Space Program" shows to keep the rest of the populace dumbed-down, and if Alternative Three is a real fact of life and they have located themselves elsewhere, perhaps even else-when, do you really think that whomever the mobs will drag out of the Elite's underground lairs by the hair and string up from your friendly neighborhood lamp-post will be the REAL Elite? -- or will they be only look-alikes, perhaps mind-controlled, brainwashed, doubles, standing-in for their masters, to be torn apart by an enraged populace who will so mutilate and burn their bodies that no forensic evidence will be left, especially in the massive upheavals during the troubled times to come, to prove that it was truly they who were killed?

Unless there is someone in the military or intelligence community who can determine the Elite's possible evacuation-routes to other planets, dimensions or times, so that the evildoers finally be hunted down and exterminated, right down to their last gene, we might never be certain, and that leads us to the reasons for the title of this piece, "The Secret Road to Mount Olympus" : Olympus was the mountain in Greece, where the Ancient Gods were supposed to dwell, so ...

We can only hope that Mankind's history will not close once again, as perhaps in vanished, past ages of high civilisations, on a sad, quasi-mythological note, with the vast majority still grubbing around in the dirt on Mother Earth, while the Elite, the self-styled Neo-Gods, loll about Somewhere or Some-When else, as in an excerpt from Alfred Tennyson's poem, "The Lotus Eaters", below, for it sounds far too much like our own, present-day, ongoing history, with the super-rich in their guarded, high-towers, while the eternal suffering of the poor and of all beings on our beautiful, Mother Earth, who could be so very lovely if Her resources were not being constantly ravished, Herself raped by the wanton destruction wrought upon Her by our would-be betters, continues, with the wannabe-"gods" once again directing their flunkies here on earth, from some higher tower than we could imagine before :

Fight, Friends, let this not come to pass! We all die anyway, that is the contract with Life which we signed when we were born! Nobody gets out of this life alive! So, if experience is all that we can take with us when we leave, hopefully to a nicer world, what have we got to lose, anyway? At least, here or in some better Hereafter, we'll be able to look ourselves in the mirror with a good conscience!

From "The Lotus-Eaters" :

On the hills like Gods together, careless of mankind.
For they lie beside their nectar, and the bolts are hurl'd
Far below them in the valleys, and the clouds are lightly curl'd
Round their golden houses, girdled with the gleaming world:
Where they smile in secret, looking over wasted lands,
Blight and famine, plague and earthquake, roaring deeps and fiery sands, Clanging fights, and flaming towns, and sinking ships, and praying hands.

But they smile, they find a music centred in a doleful song
Steaming up, a lamentation and an ancient tale of wrong,
Like a tale of little meaning tho' the words are strong;
Chanted from an ill-used race of men that cleave the soil,
Sow the seed, and reap the harvest with enduring toil,
Storing yearly little dues of wheat, and wine and oil;
Till they perish and they suffer - some, 'tis whisper'd-down in hell,
Suffer endless anguish, others in Elysian valleys dwell,
Resting weary limbs at last on beds of asphodel.
